

International Green Growth Dialogue

The OECD Green Growth Strategy is being developed to address both economic and environmental challenges, with input from multiple disciplines.

The International Green Growth Dialogue (IGGD) is an initiative to share information and ask questions on a host of green growth issues.

Join the discussion

Join the IGGD secure website to share your perspectives and activities, get feedback from the community, and discuss the development of the Green Growth Strategy.

What's on the IGGD site

- Green growth initiatives by countries,
- international organisations and stakeholders
- A calendar of green growth events
- Key documents for the OECD's Green Growth Strategy

Easy to use

The IGGD uses collaborative technology to make it easy for stakeholders to contribute their ideas and comments. Users can post documents, comment on other documents, or reply to discussions. The site allows information to be shared securely between countries, international organisations and key stakeholders.

Who's on the IGGD?

The dialogue is open to a large community of representatives from a wide range of policy areas, from government, international organisations, civil society and business in over 40 countries.

Green Growth and Innovation session at the 2010 OECD Forum. L-R: Esko Aho, Executive Vice-President, Nokia Corporation, Finland; Bruno Berthon, Managing Director, Accenture Sustainability Services, Accenture; Mikael Karlsson, President, European Environmental Bureau; Moderator: Pier Carlo Padoan, Deputy Secretary-General and Chief Economist, OECD; Leonardo Radicati, Director of ICE-Paris, Italian Institute for Foreign Trade; Niklas Zennström, CEO and Founding Partner, Atomico Ventures, United Kingdom.

Regular newsletter

A monthly newsletter will be sent to users to highlight new developments in green growth, including updates on the OECD's draft report, and new discussions, events and publications.

How to log on to the site

When access has been granted, you will receive an email with a username and password. Please keep these details as you will need them often.

How to use the site

Contribute your Green Growth strategies and initiatives, and read others.

Start a discussion in your area of interest.

The screenshot shows the website's main page. Annotations include:

- A blue arrow pointing to the 'ANNOUNCEMENT: Event: Regulatory Policy at the Crossroads: Towards a New Policy Agenda'.
- A blue arrow pointing to the 'Latest Documents for Comment or Discussion' section, which lists documents like 'Re: What green growth initiatives are being implemented in your country?'.
- A blue arrow pointing to the 'Latest Documents for Information' section, which lists documents like 'OECD Green Growth Newsletter Issue One September 2010.pdf'.
- A blue arrow pointing to the 'Actions' sidebar, which includes options like 'Start a discussion', 'Create a document', 'Create an announcement', 'create a poll', and 'Manage categories'.
- A blue arrow pointing to the 'Notifications' sidebar, which includes options like 'Receive email notifications', 'Follow this community', and 'View feeds'.
- A blue arrow pointing to the 'OECD Links' sidebar, which lists links to 'OECD Green Growth webpage', 'OECD Forum 2010', 'OECD MCM 2010', 'OECD MCM 2009', and 'Synthesis Report (Restricted)'.

Stay up to date

Read latest information on the Green Growth Strategy and find documents tagged to common topics.

Click on Receive email notifications to receive an automatic email alert each time a new item is posted.