Roger Dungan is New Zealand’s Deputy Permanent Representative to the OECD, and his work for the New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade has had a strong trade and economic focus. Before coming to Paris in 2016 he was New Zealand’s lead negotiator on climate finance and climate adaptation at COP21, and was a member of the UNFCCC Standing Committee on Finance. Before joining the foreign service, Roger was an award-winning environmental scientist, focusing on the carbon dynamics of New Zealand’s indigenous forest ecosystems.
