

GLOBAL FORUM VIII

ON International Investment

Beyond the crisis:
International investment
for a stronger, cleaner,
fairer global economy

7-8 December 2009
OECD Conference Centre
Paris, France

BIOGRAPHIES OF SPEAKERS

Organised by the OECD Investment Committee in co-operation with the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD)

OPENING PLENARY

Mr. Angel Gurría Secretary General, OECD

Born on 8 May 1950, in Tampico, Mexico, Angel Gurría came to the OECD following a distinguished career in public service, including two ministerial posts. From December 1994 to January 1998 he was Mexico's Minister of Foreign Affairs and from January 1998 to December 2000 he was the minister of Finance and Public Credit. As OECD Secretary-General, since June 2006, he has reinforced the OECD's role as a „hub“ for global dialogue and debate on economic policy issues while pursuing internal modernization and reform. Next to this, Mr. Gurría is an active participant in various international not-for-profit bodies, including the Population Council, based in New York, and the Center for Global Development based in Washington. He is a member of the International Advisory Board of Governors of the Centre for International Governance Innovation, based in Canada, and was the first recipient of the Globalist of the Year Award of the Canadian International Council to honor his efforts as a global citizen to promote trans-nationalism, inclusiveness, and a global consciousness. Mr. Gurría holds a B.A. degree in Economics from UNAM (Mexico), and a M.A. degree in Economics from Leeds University (United Kingdom). He speaks Spanish, French, English, Portuguese, Italian and German.

Dr. Mahmoud Mohieldin Minister of Investment, the Arab Republic of Egypt

Dr. Mohieldin was born in Egypt in 1965. He received his Bachelor of Science in Economics, with highest Honors, First in Order of Merit, from Cairo University, Egypt. In 1989 he received a Diploma in Quantitative Development Economics, from Warwick University, England and in 1990, he received a Master of Science in Economic and Social Policy Analysis from University of York, England, and in 1995, he received his Ph.D. in Economics from University of Warwick, England. Dr. Mohieldin has been the Minister of Investment of the Arab Republic of Egypt since 2004 and is a Member of the General Secretariat of the National Democratic Party, the majority Party in the Arab Republic of Egypt. In addition he is a Professor in Financial Economics, Faculty of Economics and Political Science, Cairo University. Dr. Mohieldin holds leading positions in numerous think tanks, research centers and academic institutions. He has worked as an Economic Advisor to the Minister of State for Economic Affairs from 1995 to 1997; Senior Economic Advisor to the Minister of Economy & Foreign Trade from 1997 to 1999; and Senior Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Trade from 1999 to 2002. He has served as a Member of several Boards of Directors. Dr. Mohieldin has published several papers and studies in the areas of Financial Economics, Financial Reform, Prudential Regulation, Trade in Services, Globalization, Exchange Rate and Monetary Policies, Corporate Governance and Competition Policy.

Dr. Ibrahim Assane Mayaki
Chief Executive Officer, NEPAD

Mr. Ibrahim Assane Mayaki of the Republic of Niger is the new Chief Executive Officer of the Secretariat of the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), headquartered in Midrand, South Africa. Mr. Mayaki, born in 1951, holds a Masters degree from the National School of Public Administration (Enap), Québec, Canada and a PhD in Administrative Sciences from the University of Paris I, France. He worked as a Professor of Public Administration in Niger and Venezuela. Between 1996 and 1999 he was successively appointed Minister in charge of the African Integration and Cooperation and Minister of Foreign Affairs. In November 1997, he was appointed Prime Minister, a function he held until January 2000. In August 2000, he set up the Analysis Centre for Public Policy. He is the author of the book entitled "Quand la caravane passe..."

relating his political career. From 2000 to 2004, Mr Mayaki was a guest Professor at the University of Paris XI. In 2004, he was appointed as the Executive Director of the Platform in support of Rural Development in West and Central Africa, the Rural Hub, based in Dakar, Senegal, from where he was recruited as NEPAD CEO.

Marco Vinicio Ruiz-Gutiérrez
Minister for Foreign Trade, Costa Rica

He is an Industrial Engineer graduated from Universidad de Costa Rica (UCR), obtained his Masters degree in Business Administration from New York University (NYU). He has developed business activities in the fields of agro-industry, technology and agriculture. Marco Vinicio Ruiz has had an outstanding performance as a leader of the business sector at local, regional and continental levels. He has served in many high-profile positions, both at national and international level. He has participated actively in the coordination of negotiations of trade agreements with Mexico, Dominican Republic and Chile. As a President of the National Business Council for the Free Trade Agreement between Central America and United States (CONCAUSA, in Spanish) and the Central American Business Council, he coordinated the participation of the Costa

Rican private sector in CAFTA negotiations. He has been an international advisor for the private sector of Ecuador in negotiations of Free Trade Agreements between Andean countries with United States. He has served in several working groups both at governmental and legislative levels and published a wide variety of articles about foreign trade-related policies in national and business fields. He has received several accolades, among which – on behalf of the Costa Rican Solidarity Movement – Solidarity Businessman of the Year. The Costa Rican Chamber of Commerce granted him the Commercial Award of Merit. The Costa Rican Chamber of Food Industries granted him the Award for Industrial Effort. The Central American Federation of Chambers of Industries acknowledged his contribution to the CAFTA negotiation process.

Carolyn Ervin
Director, Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs, OECD

Carolyn H. Ervin is the OECD Director for Financial and Enterprise Affairs (DAF). Her Directorate helps governments to improve the domestic and global policies that affect business and markets. It works in the fields of anti corruption, corporate governance, competition law and policy, investment, financial markets, insurance, private pensions and private sector development. OECD member governments are the principal clients, but the Directorate and its committees also have extensive relations with non-OECD countries that wish to improve their economies and become more integrated in the global economy. The Directorate and its committees also engage in extensive consultations with business, labour, professional communities and civil society in order to enrich their work and build constituencies for it. During over twenty years at the OECD, Carolyn Ervin has held posts in several areas. She was director of the secretary-general's office from 2000 to 2005. As counselor in DAF in the 1990s she led the project to negotiate the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention and was a main drafter of the OECD Jobs Study. During the 1980s and 1990s she handled programme and budget issues in the secretary-general's office, and helped to set up the Centre for Co-operation with the Economies in Transition. Prior to joining the OECD Carolyn Ervin spent six years in the United States diplomatic service. Carolyn Ervin is a U.S. citizen. She has a B.A. and an M.A. in Economics from Stanford University. She is married and has one daughter.

Dr. Karl P. Sauvant
Executive Director, Vale Columbia Center on Sustainable International Investment

Dr. Karl P. Sauvant is the founding Executive Director of the Vale Columbia Center on Sustainable International Investment, Senior Research Scholar and Lecturer in Law at Columbia Law School, Co-Director of the Millennium Cities Initiative, and Guest Professor at Nankai University, China. Until July 2005, Dr. Sauvant was Director of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development's (UNCTAD) Division on Investment, Technology and Enterprise Development (DITE), the focal point in the UN system for matters related to foreign direct investment (FDI) and technology, as well as a major interface with the private sector. While at the UN, he created, in 1991, the prestigious annual World Investment Report, of which he was the lead author until 2004. He is the author of, or responsible for, a substantial number of publications on issues related to economic development, FDI and services. In 2006, he was elected an Honorary Fellow of the European International Business Academy. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1975.

James Zhan
Director of the Investment and Enterprise Division (UNCTAD)

Mr. James Zhan is Director of the Investment and Enterprise Division at United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD). The Division under his direction is the focal point in the United Nations System dealing with investment and enterprise development issues. It conducts research and policy analysis, builds international consensus among 193 countries and provides technical assistance to institutions in over 150 countries. Mr. Zhan provides overall guidance and management to the key programmes/products including World Investment Report, FDI/TNC statistics, FDI study series, investment policy reviews, investment promotion and facilitation, international investment agreements, World Investment Forum, international standards for accounting and reporting, entrepreneurship training, corporate social responsibility, and intellectual property. Mr. Zhan has over 20 years of international and national experience in the area of investment and enterprise development. This includes advising many governments in formulating investment policies and building investment promotion capacities, facilitating intergovernmental conferences and negotiations, and leading a number of research and policy analysis projects. Mr. Zhan holds a PhD degree in international economics, and was research fellow at Oxford University. He is author (or co-author) of a number of books and articles on economic and legal issues.

Jeremy Gaunt
Reuters European Investment Correspondent, London

Jeremy Gaunt has been Reuters European Investment Correspondent, based in London, since 2002. Prior to that he was bureau chief for Greece and Cyprus, in Athens, senior EU correspondent in Brussels and a financial reporter in New York. Before joining Reuters in 1990, he covered U.S. politics and culture for The Economist and was a reporter for Congressional Quarterly in Washington D.C., specializing in elections. He won State Street's Investment Correspondent of the Year in 2006.

SPEAKERS

Sedat Aybar
Associate Professor of Economics, Kadir Has University, Istanbul, Turkey

Sedat Aybar, Assoc. Professor of Economics, BSc. (Econ), MA (London), PhD (London), is the Head of Economics Department and the Director of Middle-eastern and African Studies Centre at the Kadir Has University in Istanbul. He taught, researched and published on a variety of topics that includes, International Economics, Banking and Finance in Economic Development, Development Economics, Central Bank Independence, African economies and Turkey. He has worked as a consultant to the Asian Development Bank (ADB), Overseas Development Agency (ODA) and the UNDP. He is the Director of joint Executive MBA Program of Kadir Has University with Fordham University of New York. He teaches distant study courses at graduate level at University of London's, Centre for Finance and International Management (CeFiMS). He has also worked for the Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU), in London, England. He is currently the country team leader (Turkey) for a joint research project, Emerging Markets Global Players (EMGP) with the Vale Columbia Centre of the Columbia University in New York.

Fernando Cepeda Ulloa
Ambassador of Columbia, Paris, France

Fernando Cepeda Ulloa has been Ambassador before the OAS in Canada and in the United Kingdom; Colombian Permanent Representative before the United Nations; Minister of Government, of Communications, and Plenipotentiary Minister in Washington and Business Responsible; Vice-minister for Economic Development; Chancellor in charge and Vice-chancellor of the Universidad de los Andes; Director and Professor, Department of Political Science; and Director of the Centre for International Studies.

Jeremy Clegg*Head of International Business Division, University of Leeds Business School

Is Jean Monnet Professor of European Integration and International Business Management at Leeds University Business School, University of Leeds. His chair is supported by the European Commission.

His research interests include the determinants of foreign direct investment by and into developed and developing countries, and the impact of foreign-owned firms on the productivity and performance of firms in developing countries, particularly China. He is leading a project on outward foreign direct investment by Chinese firms in the UK and the EU, and has recently been working on an Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (EPSRC) research project on the determinants of productivity, and international productivity differences in services. Previously he held appointments at the universities of Bath, Reading, Swansea and Exeter.

He recently spent seven months as a visiting fellow at UNCTAD (the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development) in Geneva, working with the team that produces the annual World Investment Report, on a collaborative project to investigate the impact of national policy changes, such as regulatory changes and regional integration, on the international investment behaviour of firms and the international flow of foreign direct investment. He served as Chair of the Academy of International Business, United Kingdom & Ireland Chapter, from 2001 to 2007.

Karim Dahou*Executive Manager, NEPAD-OECD Africa Investment Initiative, OECD Secretariat

Mr Karim Dahou was named Executive Manager of the NEPAD-OECD Africa Investment Initiative in July 2008. Mr Dahou is responsible for the operational leadership and management of the Initiative: defining its strategic aims and objectives; directing its high level meetings; and overseeing core activities, including country investment reviews. Before joining the Initiative, he held several related positions in international trade and investment, notably in Africa. He has previously served as a senior advisor to the Africa Partnership Forum Support Unit, where he worked on investment in Africa in the framework of the German G8 Presidency. Mr Dahou has also previously served as the Chief of Staff to the Executive Secretary of the Pan-African NGO Enda, where he also launched and managed the policy think-tank Diapol. He is a graduate of the Paris

Institute of Political Studies (Sciences Po) and holds a Masters degree in law from La Sorbonne University.

Stephan J. Dreyhaupt*Head of Research & Knowledge, Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA), World Bank Group

Stephan J. Dreyhaupt is the Head of Research & Knowledge at the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) of the World Bank Group. Stephan has over 15 years of professional experience with international finance institutions, having advised governments in more than 40 member countries as well as worked with corporations engaged in foreign direct investment across a broad range of issues related to investment climate, risk mitigation and knowledge dissemination. Prior to joining the World Bank Group, Mr. Dreyhaupt worked for the German federal investment promotion program based in New York (NYC), the World Trade Center Vancouver (Canada), and a strategic consulting firm in Berlin (Germany). Mr. Dreyhaupt holds a PhD in International Economics from the European Business School, an MBA from the Technical University

Berlin and an MA from Johns Hopkins University (SAIS).

Haruo Funabashi
Visiting Professor, Hitotsubashi University, Graduate School of International Corporate Strategy. CEO, SIRIUS INSTITUTE Inc.

Mr. Funabashi served as a government official for thirty-three years after he graduated from the Faculty of Law at the University of Tokyo. He joined the Ministry of Finance in 1969. Mr. Funabashi has served as Deputy Vice-Minister of Finance for international affairs, Deputy Commissioner, National Tax Administration, Secretary-General, Securities and Exchange Surveillance Commission, Vice-Minister of Land, Infrastructure and Transport. He founded the SIRIUS INSTITUTE Inc., a think tank in the field of business ethics and economic ethics in 2003. He is the author of many books on history and philosophy, including: “Landscape with the Fall of Icarus” (1983); “The window at the Age of Isolation, Nagasaki 1569-1868” (1986); “A Journey toward the Native Land of Japanese Economy” (2000); “Japanese wisdom and Economic ethics” (2001); “The secret of long-lived Japanese companies” (2003); “The Sirius Method – A methodology to strengthen the power against corporate irregularities” (2007) etc ( in Japanese ). More recently he published “Timeless Ventures – 32 Japanese companies that imbibed 8 principles of longevity” by TATA McGrawhill (in English).

Kathryn Gordon
Head of the Freedom of Investment unit, OECD

Kathryn Gordon is a senior economist in the Investment Division of the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). Kathryn is currently working on the role of national security and of emergency responses to financial crisis in international investment policy. Earlier, she was one of the main Secretariat participants in the negotiations that led up to the successful review of the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and was responsible for OECD research on corporate responsibility. In earlier positions at the OECD, she dealt with fiscal, tax and regulatory issues. Prior to taking her position at the OECD, Kathryn was a professor at a French business school (École Supérieure des Sciences Économiques et Commerciales). She is a US citizen and has been a resident of France for more than 20 years. She obtained a PHD and an MBA-Finance from the University of California, Berkeley before moving to France.

David Hallam
Deputy Director, Trade and Markets Division, United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation

David Hallam is Deputy Director of the Trade and Markets Division at the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation in Rome where he leads work on agricultural commodity market analysis, agricultural trade and development issues and food and agricultural trade policy. He has recently completed a major study on the 2007-2008 food price hike. He is now leading FAO's work on international investment in agriculture and has written extensively on this subject. He is leading FAO's collaboration with the World Bank, UNCTAD and IFAD on the development of international guidelines for international agricultural investment, especially investment in land in developing countries. He is the editor of FAO's flagship publication The State of Agricultural Commodity Markets and is Secretary of the Committee on Commodity Problems. Before moving to FAO in 1999, he taught Agricultural Economics in the University of Reading, England specialising in analysis of agricultural commodity markets and policy. He was also Director of the Centre for Agricultural Strategy in the University, an independent research centre analyzing agricultural policy issues for governments. He has written numerous books and articles on agricultural commodity markets, trade and development and was Editor of the Journal of Agricultural Economics. Before moving to FAO he was a regular consultant for the OECD, World Bank, governments and the private sector on international food markets and policy. He was educated at the Universities of Oxford and Reading. David Hallam was born in Leeds, England in 1953.

Seev Hirsch

Emeritus Professor, The Leon Recanati Graduate School of Business, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Seev Hirsch is emeritus professor of international business at Tel Aviv University. He was Jaffe Professor of International Trade at the Leon Recanati Graduate School of Business Administration since 1981. He joined Tel Aviv University in 1965, after getting his MBA and doctorate from the Harvard Business School in Boston. He was the Recanati School's second dean. Prior to becoming an academic he was a member of Kibbutz Maagan Michael. He studied economics and statistics at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. After retiring from Tel Aviv University he founded and was head of the MBA program of the College of Management, at Rishon Lezion. In recent years, he has been directing a series of courses on entrepreneurship and industrial management for Arab and Jewish university graduates. The program sought to promote entrepreneurship, export oriented industrial development and business cooperation between Arab and Jews. By 2008, over 230 students, including more than 70 Arabs, participated in the program. Several have established their own businesses. Dr. Hirsch has served on a number of public committees. During the 'eighties he served on a panel, advising the minister of finance on economic aspects of the Middle East peace process. Dr. Hirsch has published numerous books and articles on international trade, investment and business, on the economic relations of the European Community with small outsiders and on economic aspects of the Middle East peace process.

Toru Homma

Regional Advisor, Japan International Cooperation Agency, Kenya

Mr. Toru Homma has a long career in industry, trade, investment and private sector development in Africa and Asia. Currently he is working for Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) as the Advisor in the Industrial Development Department of its Headquarters and as the Regional Advisor on Trade, Investment and Private Sector Development in the Regional Strategic Unit for Africa, based in Nairobi, Kenya. He is involved in various technical cooperation projects and policy dialogues of JICA on investment and industry throughout the African continent.

Since 2006 until recently (June 2009), Mr. Homma worked for the OECD Secretariat and served as the Project Manager of the NEPAD-OECD Africa Investment Initiative in the Investment Division of the Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs of the OECD. He has contributed to launching and shaping up the Initiative as one of the most prominent forums of African investment policy community together with his African partners and his colleagues in OECD.

Before taking up the position in OECD, Mr. Homma has experienced several relevant positions during his career in relation to Japan's bilateral technical cooperation since 1993, including i) Assistant Resident Representative on Trade, Investment and Industry Promotion in JICA Indonesia Office for 3 years, ii) Expert on SME Development in a JICA supporting industry development project in Indonesia for 3 years, iii) Associate Specialist on Small and Medium-Scale Industries Development in JICA Mining and Industrial Development Cooperation Department for 2 years and iv) JICA Volunteer in Zambia on market research in a household fuel development project for 3 years.

Mr. Homma has a Master of Science degree in Industrial Strategy and Trade Policy from the Institute for Development Policy and Management, University of Manchester, UK, and a Bachelor of Engineering degree in Administrative Engineering from Keio University, Japan.

Dr. Peter Kusek
Investment Policy Officer, Investment Climate Advisory Services, World Bank Group

Peter Kusek is Investment Policy Officer at the World Bank Group's Investment Climate department. He leads the Investing Across Borders indicators project, which benchmarks the ease of establishing and operating a foreign-owned business in countries across the world. His areas of specialty include regulatory and administrative barriers to investment, investment law and commercial arbitration. Prior to joining the World Bank Group, Mr. Kusek worked on small-enterprise development in Bangladesh and microfinance in Tanzania. He also served as Deputy Program Director at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), where he worked on economic policy reform and implementation in the transition economies. Mr. Kusek holds a Master in Public Affairs (MPA) degree from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University, where he specialized in Economic Policy and International Development.

Alexei Kuznetsov
Head, Section of EU Studies, Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO), Moscow, Russia

Alexey V. Kuznetsov was born in 1978 in Moscow. He graduated from the Moscow State University in 2001 (diploma in economic geography with honours). In 2003 he became a PhD in economics (kandidat nauk) at the Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO) of Russian Academy of Sciences and joined the staff. In 2008 Kuznetsov became the youngest Russian professor (doktor nauk) in the field of world economy. Kuznetsov has been the head of the Section for EU studies since 2006 and the head of the Center for European studies at the IMEMO-Institute since 2009. He is a member of the Academic Council of IMEMO and a member of the Dissertation Council in the field of world economy by IMEMO. Kuznetsov is the author of several books and more than 90 articles (mainly in Russian but also in English). He has taken part in various Russian and international scientific projects. At the moment he is a team-leader of the Russian Humanitarian Fund project "The influence of Russian investment expansion on Russian image in Europe". Main fields of his research are European FDI, Russian multinational enterprises, Russian foreign economic relations, economy of the EU and especially Germany, regional policy. Kuznetsov became "Best economists of the Russian Academy of Sciences" prize winner in 2004. Also he received a grant of the Russian Federation President for young PhD in 2005 and the Russian Academy of Sciences medal for his book "Internationalization of Russian economy: an investment aspect" in 2007.

The Hon. Marc Lalonde, P.C., O.C., Q.C.
Lawyer

Mr. Lalonde holds a master's degree in law from the Université de Montréal, as well as a master's degree from Oxford University (M.A.OXON.) and a Diplôme d'études supérieures en droit (D.E.S.D.) from the University of Ottawa. In 1971, he was appointed Queen's Counsel by the Governor General of Canada. Policy Advisor to the Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, 1967-1968. Principal Secretary to Prime Minister Pierre E. Trudeau, 1968-1972. Elected Member of Parliament and appointed Minister of Health and Welfare (1972-1977). Between 1972 and 1976, was Minister Responsible for Sport. Between 1974-1979, assumed the additional portfolio of Minister Responsible for the Status of Women. In 1977, appointed Minister of State Responsible for Federal-Provincial Relations. In 1978, appointed Minister of Justice and Attorney General for Canada. In 1980, appointed Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources. In 1982, appointed Minister of Finance. He terminated his mandate as Minister of Finance on September 17, 1984 and on October 1st, became partner at Stikeman Elliott LLP, with offices in Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Calgary, Vancouver, New York, London, and Sydney. Between 2003 and 2006, he served as senior counsel to that firm, practicing more particularly international commercial arbitration and mediation. On 1 July 2006, he terminated that arrangement and now acts as sole practitioner. Chairman of the Council of Governors, Canada-Chile Chamber of Commerce (1995-present). Vice Chairman of the Canadian German Chamber of Industry and Commerce Inc. (2002-2005). Co-chairman of the Canadian-German section of Atlantik-Brücke (2001-2005).

John Lamb
Senior Agribusiness Specialist, World Bank

As the World Bank's Agribusiness Team Leader, Mr. Lamb manages the global Agricultural and Rural Enterprise program in the anchor Agriculture and Rural Development Department. This program subsumes various multi-country initiatives: "Mainstreaming Agri-food Standards", "Rural Investment Climate", "Doing Business in Agriculture", "Responsible Agro-investment", and "Regional Agribusiness Trade & Investment in SE Asia". He also represents the Bank before the WTO SPS Committee and Standards and Trade Development Facility. Prior to joining the Bank, Mr. Lamb acquired more than twenty years' experience in the consultancy firms Chemonics International and Abt Associates, where he specialized in non-traditional exports, competitiveness, market information, value/supply chain approaches to agroenterprise, and private agricultural and trade organizations. Over an eight-year period he served as Team Leader in Guatemala for the USAID-funded Central America-wide Non-traditional Agricultural Export Support project, which catalyzed and solidified that region's role as supplier of winter-season fresh and processed produce to North America and Europe. For seven years he operated his own fresh produce sourcing operation in Latin America, while serving as International Strategy Advisor for the Produce Reporter Company (Blue Book), and consulting with a dozen U.S. and foreign trade, industry and exporter associations. Mr. Lamb began his international agricultural development career with a 3+ year stint in the Peace Corps, serving in Morocco, Ecuador and El Salvador, after which he started up new country programs and served as Country Director for TechnoServe Inc in Nicaragua and El Salvador. Mr. Lamb holds B.A. (Magna cum laude) and M.B.A. degrees from Harvard University.

Karin Millett*Head, Investment Generation, Vienna Office, Investment Climate Advisory Services, World Bank Group

Karin Millett has been Head of the Vienna Office of the Investment Generation practice of the World Bank Group's Investment Climate Advisory Services since March 2008. In that capacity, she is responsible for leading and managing work of a team of specialists providing advice and assistance to countries in the region of Eastern and Southern Europe and Central Asia to support improved policies, conditions and strategies to attract and retain productive cross-border investment. Her areas of specialization include foreign direct investment, economic development, mining and infrastructure, local governance and decentralization. Her undergraduate studies were completed in Ireland and Germany. She holds Ph.D. and MA degrees from the University of Denver in the USA, and a post-graduate diploma in economics from the University of London. Dr. Millett joined the World Bank in 1995, first as a Manager and subsequently as a Director of the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency, in charge of the global technical assistance and advisory services focusing on foreign direct investment. Later, as a Director of the World Bank Institute (WBI) she was responsible for global knowledge and learning products that included analytical work on knowledge economies and knowledge for development. Dr. Millett served as the Director of the Joint Africa Institute (a joint World Bank/IMF/African Development Bank Institute to support policy related training) for three years, ending in September 2007. Immediately prior to taking up her current position, she served briefly as Senior Advisor to the Vice President of the World Bank Institute.

Theodore H. Moran*Non-resident Senior Fellow, Peterson Institute of International Economics

Theodore H. Moran holds the Marcus Wallenberg Chair in International Business and Finance at the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, where he teaches and conducts research at the intersection of international economics, business, foreign affairs, and public policy. His most recent books include Harnessing Foreign Direct Investment for Development: Policies for Developed and Developing Countries, Center for Global Development, 2006. Does Foreign Direct Investment Promote Development?, editor, with Magnus Blomstrom, Stockholm School of Economics and Edward Graham, Institute for International Economics, 2005; Beyond Sweatshops: Foreign Direct Investment, Globalization, and Developing Countries (Brookings, 2002); and Foreign Investment and Development (Institute for International Economics, 1998). In 1993-94, Dr. Moran served as Senior Advisor for Economics on the Policy Planning Staff of the Department of State, where he had responsibility for trade, finance, technology, energy, and environmental issues. He returned to Georgetown after the NAFTA and Uruguay Round negotiations. In 2000, he was appointed Counselor to the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) of the World Bank Group. In 2002 Dr. Moran was named Chairman of the Committee on Monitoring International Labor Standards of the National Academy of Sciences. Professor Moran received his PhD from Harvard in 1971. He is a Non-Resident Senior Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics and at the Center for Global Development.

Pamela Muckosy
Head of Research, Ethical Corporation

Pamela Muckosy is Head of Research at Ethical Corporation, a London-based organisation dedicated to researching, publishing and facilitating corporate responsibility. She has built her research and management skills while working in Asia, Africa, North America, South America and Europe. Previous responsibilities include research and project management for the Overseas Development Agency, International Development Research Council, International Monetary Fund, United Nations and various national government aid agencies and leading corporations. Pamela completed her masters degree at the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Anant G. Nadkarni
Vice-President of the Tata Council for Community Initiatives

Anant Nadkarni is currently Vice-President of Group Corporate Sustainability and coordinates social, environmental and related initiatives with nearly fifty major Tata companies. Mr. Nadkarni is certificated in environmental management, Global Reporting Initiatives and sustainability reporting. He also represents Tata on several bodies promoting social responsibility and corporate sustainability. He developed a series of initiatives and helped Tata companies to evolve a common process and a set of Guidelines on Social Development and Environmental Management. This resulted in a network of senior level participants across group companies providing inputs that evolved into a comprehensive “protocol and leadership model” for corporate sustainability. Owing to the paucity of credible social indicators, he conceptualized and partnered with the UNDP the Tata Index for Sustainable Human Development. Mr. Nadkarni has had the opportunity to work in diverse fields, interact with an extremely interesting and wide variety of people, and assist authorities and citizens to innovate ways of addressing new challenges in community building. At present he conducts programmes in CS Leadership and Sustainability for the Tata group, other businesses and institutions. After graduating with a degree in Economics and Commerce, Mr. Nadkarni took his MDBA from Pune and served for Tata Motors for 18 years in different capacities in manufacturing, projects and audit. Mr. Nadkarni sought assignments / sabbaticals with the Center for Development Studies and Activities (CDSA) in Pune and the Public Affairs Center (PAC) in Bangalore where he developed programs in improving the quality of local self-governance.

Richard Parry
Head of Unit, OECD Centre for Tax Policy and Administration

Richard Parry has been Head of Global Relations in the OECD’s Centre for Tax Policy and Administration since 2001. His primary role is to encourage global perspectives in the development and implementation of OECD standards and guidelines in the tax area, and to provide assistance to developing countries to strengthen their tax systems.

Previously, Richard was responsible for the development and implementation of international anti-avoidance rules in the UK Inland Revenue. He has a doctorate in African development from Queen’s University in Kingston, Canada.

Joachim Pohl
Legal and policy analyst, Investment Division, OECD

Joachim Pohl is legal and policy analyst in the OECD Investment Division. His current assignments include analytical work on policies for responsible investment in agriculture and monitoring of investment policies for the OECD Freedom of Investment process and for the G-20. Mr. Pohl joined the OECD in 2003. In his earlier roles in the Organisation's Anti-Corruption Division, he assessed governance and anti-corruption policies in developing countries in Asia, monitored compliance under the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention, and coordinated the Asian Development Bank/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia and the Pacific.

Before joining the OECD, Mr. Pohl, a German national, taught public and administrative law at Humboldt University Berlin and MGLU Moscow. He holds a PhD in law from Humboldt-University and a master's degree in political science from the University of Bordeaux.

Mr. Pierre Poret
Head of OECD Investment Division

Pierre Poret is Head of the Investment Division, in the OECD's Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs since 2001. The OECD Investment Division is responsible for international investment policy, corporate responsibility, investment for development, international agreements and statistics. Pierre Poret joined the OECD from the French Ministry of Finance in 1986.

His previous positions at the OECD included principal administrator dealing with accession of new members and financial aspects of the 1995-98 MAI negotiations, and deputy-director of the Secretary-General's Office.

Daniel M. Price
Senior Partner, Sidley Austin LLP; former Assistant to the US President and Deputy National Security Advisor for International Economics

Daniel M. Price is Senior Partner for Global Issues and a member of the Executive Committee at Sidley Austin LLP. He works with Sidley lawyers worldwide advising clients on a wide range of international regulatory, transactional and policy matters, including global financial regulation, trade and climate change. He also represents clients in the resolution of international disputes. Mr. Price rejoins Sidley after serving as Assistant to the President and Deputy National Security Advisor for International Economic Affairs in the Administration of George W. Bush. In this role, he was the senior White House official responsible for international economic issues. Prior to his White House service, Mr. Price was chair of Sidley's 50-member International Trade & Dispute Resolution group and counselled multinational companies, financial institutions and trade associations on market access, services, investment, CFIUS and sanctions issues and matters arising in intergovernmental negotiations. From 2002-2007, Mr. Price served by Presidential appointment on the Panel of Arbitrators of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), and was a party-appointed arbitrator in a number of investment disputes. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association. Mr. Price received his B.A. with high honours from Haverford College in 1977; a Diploma in Legal Studies in 1979 from Cambridge University, where he was an American Keasbey Scholar; and his J.D. in 1981 from Harvard Law School, where he was Articles Editor of the Harvard Law Review.

Manfred Schekulin
Chair, OECD Investment Committee

Manfred Schekulin is Director for Export and Investment Policy at the Federal Ministry of Economics and Labour of Austria, Chairman of the OECD-Investment Committee, Co-Chairman, South East Europe Compact for Reform, Investment, Integrity and Growth and Lecturer at the University of Management Studies, Krems, and at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration. He owns a doctorate in Law, a master in Social and Economic Sciences/Economics (University of Vienna) and a MBA (Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration).

Kenko Sone
Director of OECD Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan

Kenko Sone received a B.A. in Law from Hitotsubashi University in March, 1989 and a B.A in Government from Wesleyan University in May, 1990. He has been the Director, OECD Division, Economics Affairs Bureau since August 2008. Immediately prior to that he was the Counsellor, Permanent Mission of Japan to the International Organisations in Geneva (from August 2005). He entered the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in April 1989 starting in the Second North America Division followed by the North American Affairs Bureau May 1989, then the Treaties Division, Treaties Bureau, October 1989. In September 1990 he undertook the Foreign Service Training Program (Wesleyan University, CT, USA) and was made Third Secretary, Embassy of Japan in the United States May 1992, promoted Second Secretary in April 1993. He was made Deputy Director of the Japan-U.S. Security Treaty Division, North American Affairs Bureau in 1996 then Deputy Director of the First International Organization Division Economic Affairs Bureau in February 1998. Other posts include: Assistant Director China and Mongolia Division, Asian Affairs Bureau, October 1999 becoming Principle Deputy Director in December 2000; Secretary to the Deputy Chief Cabinet Secretary, July 2003.

Astrit Sulstarova
Economic Affairs Officer, Division of Investment and Enterprise,
United Nations Conference on Trade and Development

Astrit Sulstarova: Economic Affairs Officer, Division of Investment and Enterprise, United Nations Conference on Trade and Development. He is involved mainly in research, and econometric and statistical modeling of foreign direct investment (FDI) and activities of transnational corporations (TNCs). He is contributing to the analysis of FDI related to transition economies (Eastern Europe, Commonwealth of Independent States and South-Eastern Europe) mainly for the World Investment Report. He is actively involved in UNCTAD technical assistance aiming at helping different countries to enhance their institutional capacity as regards the compilation, dissemination and analysis of data on FDI and the operations of TNCs. He obtained a degree as Mathematician from Tirana University in Albania; M.A. in Applied Economic from Institute for Advanced Studies in Vienna, Austria and Ph.D. in International Economics from Graduate Institute for International Studies in Geneva, Switzerland. Main publications outside the United Nations include articles published in major professional journals including the Journal of International Money and Finance.

Marjan Svetličič*Head, Centre of International Relations, University of Ljubljana, Ljubljana, Slovenia

Marjan Svetličič is a Professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Ljubljana, Head of the Centre of International Relations, and a Fellow of the European Academy of International Business (EIBA). He was President of the EIBA and a member of the Steering Committee of the Standing Group of the European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR), a Dean of the Faculty and is Ambassador of Science of the Republic of Slovenia. He is also a member of many editorial boards of scientific journals and a consultant to international organisations. His bibliography includes over 300 items. Among them books in English: Facilitating Transition by Internationalization; Outward Direct Investment from Central European Economies in Transition (ed. with M. Rojec), Ashgate Publishing Ltd., Aldershot; Enhanced Transition by Outward Internationalization: Outward FDI by Slovene firms (with A. Jaklič), Ashgate Publishing Ltd., Aldershot, 2003; Small countries in a global economy (ed. with D. Salvatore and J. P. Damijan), Palgrave, St. Martin's Press, Basingstoke, New York, 2001; The world economy: Challenges of globalization and regionalization (ed. with H. Singer), Macmillan, St. Martin's Press, Basingstoke, New York, 1996; Foreign Investment in Central and Eastern Europe. New York, St. Martin's, 1993, 206 str. (z P. Artisenom in M. Rojcem).

Dr. Stephen Thomsen*Senior Economist, OECD

Stephen Thomsen holds a Ph.D. in international economics from the Graduate Institute of International Affairs in Geneva, Switzerland. Prior to earning his doctorate, he worked in a research institute in Washington DC and afterwards spent five years as a Research Fellow at Chatham House in London. He has been affiliated with the OECD since 1995, both on the staff and as an external consultant, and is now a Senior Economist in the Investment Division of the Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs.

Professor Nicolas Véron*Senior Research Fellow, Bruegel, Brussels

Nicolas Véron's research at Bruegel covers two main areas: financial regulation and supervision, including banking surveillance and accounting / financial reporting policy; and interactions between companies and nations, such as policies to promote or protect "national champions", regulatory competition among countries, or public screening of FDI. He has been involved with Bruegel since its inception in late 2002 and has worked there on a full-time basis since 2005. Since October 2009 he is also Visiting Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics in Washington DC. Véron's prior experience is in public policy and corporate finance, working for the Saint-Gobain Group in Berlin, Rothschilds in Paris, and as economic aide to the state representative (Préfet) in Lille, France. Subsequently, corporate adviser to France's Labour Minister (1997-2000), chief financial officer of MultiMania/Lycos France, a publicly-listed Internet company in Paris (2000-2002), and in 2002 founded ECIF, a financial-services consultancy. He is the author of Smoke & Mirrors, Inc.: Accounting for Capitalism, (Cornell University Press, 2006); of numerous policy papers at Bruegel alone or with co-authors; and of several books in French. Véron is a member of the Corporate Disclosure Policy Council of the CFA Institute and of the Accounting and Auditing Practices Committee of the International Corporate Governance Network. A French citizen born in 1971, he has a quantitative background as a graduate from Ecole Polytechnique (1992) and Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Mines de Paris (1995). He speaks fluent English, French, German and Spanish.

Hu Yuandong

UNIDO Investment & Technology Promotion Office for China in Beijing

Mr. Hu Yuandong was born in Dec. 1954, EMPA and PAD candidate of University of Colorado at Denver, U.S.A. Mr. Hu's working experience includes two years with a civil engineering company, over six years as a professional diplomat in early 80s and 4 years with UNDP China Country Program. In late Dec. 1995, he was appointed by the Director General of United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) to be Director, heading UNIDO Investment & Technology Promotion Office (ITPO) for China in Beijing in charge of investment/trade promotion and technology transfer till now.

GFII SPECIAL SESSION: BRIEFING WITH DR. IBRAHIM ASSANE MAYAKI, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, NEPAD

H.E. Maurice Peter Kagimu Kiwanuka
Uganda's Ambassador to Switzerland

H.E. Maurice Peter Kagimu Kiwanuka is Uganda's Ambassador to Switzerland and Permanent Representative to the United Nations and other International Organisations in Geneva since July 2009. Prior to his appointment in Geneva, he was Minister of State for Economic Monitoring, Office of the President and Ex-Officio Member of Parliament from 2006-2009. From 2002-2006 he was Member of Parliament for Bukomansimbi Constituency and he was the Bukomansimbi Constituent Assembly delegate from 1993-1994. He has also worked as Administrative Officer, National Housing and Construction Corporation and Banking Officer, Bank of Uganda. He holds a B.A. (Hons) Economics of Makerere University, Kampala and a B.A. (Hons) Philosophy of Urbaniana University, Rome.

Dr. Dinesh Bhattarai

Nepal's Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the United Nations

Dr. Dinesh Bhattarai has been Nepal's Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the United Nations including Conference on Disarmament (CD) and International Organizations since 26 November 2007. He is accredited to the World Trade Organization in Geneva, Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) in Rome and United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) in Vienna. Dr. Bhattarai is also concurrently accredited as Ambassador to the Swiss Confederation, Republic of Italy and the Republic of Croatia. He joined the Nepalese Diplomatic Service in April 1983. He served as First Secretary (Political Affairs) at the Embassy of Nepal in New Delhi from 1991-1994, and Deputy Chief of Mission at the Embassy of Nepal in Washington D.C. from 1998-2003. Dr. Bhattarai has worked in various capacities in Divisions of Protocol, Europe and America, Southeast Asia and Pacific, North Asia. Prior to his appointment as Ambassador in 2007, Dr. Bhattarai headed the United Nations, International Organizations and International Law, and Multilateral Economic Affairs Divisions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He did Masters in Public Administration, Economics, Bachelor of Law from Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu and Post Graduate Diploma in International Relations and Development from the Institute of Social Studies (ISS), The Hague. He obtained his Ph.D. in International Relations from the Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi. He has co-authored a book, "Nepal-India: Democracy in the Making of Mutual Trust", published in 1993 by Nirala Publications, Jaipur, India.

Joaquim Fonseca
Permanent Representative of the Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste to the United Nations Office

Joaquim Fonseca is the Permanent Representative of the Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations at Geneva since January 2009, with concurrent accreditation as Ambassador to the Swiss Confederation. Prior to this post, Mr. Fonseca held various positions within the Government Timor-Leste, and was actively involved with civil society organizations both prior to and after the independence of Timor-Leste. Between September 2007 and December 2008, Mr. Fonseca was the advisor to the Prime Minister on Civil Society. In this position, while devising policies and facilitating the process to strengthen the relationship of cooperation between Civil Society and the Government, Mr. Fonseca was engaged in the process of negotiation to resolve the conflict which stemmed out of the dismissal of half of the country's Defense Force in 2006. Working directly with the Prime Minister, Mr. Fonseca was a key player in process of reintegration of the former militaries, thereby bringing a peaceful solution to the crisis which held the country hostage for over two years. In the area of human rights, Mr. Fonseca has held the position of Human Rights Adviser for the Government and was leading the development Timor-Leste's first human rights treaties reports. Mr. Fonseca was a human rights activist holding a senior position in one of the main human rights organizations in Timor-Leste and played a significant role in the engagement of civil society during the development of the Timorese Constitution.

H.E. Mr. Sun Suon
Ambassador of Cambodia

Educational background: Baccalaureate II, Lycée Preah Sisowath, Phnom Penh, Cambodia; Faculty of Law and Economic Sciences, University of Phnom Penh, Cambodia (Pre-Bachelor Studies); Law Degree (Jurist), Sofia University, Bulgaria; PhD in jurisprudence (International Law), Sofia University; MA in International Relations, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University, MA, USA. Professional experience: 1979-1980 joined the Government Civil Service (Administration Unit). 1991 joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (after PhD studies). 1993-1994 Head of Legal Bureau, Administration Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs & International Cooperation (MFA&IC). 1994-98 Deputy Director, Legal Department (MFA&IC). 1998-1999 Counsellor, Permanent Mission of the Kingdom of Cambodia to the United Nations (NY). 1999-2003 Ambassador and Deputy Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of Cambodia to the UN in New York. 2004-2005 Director (Ambassador's rank), Department of America, MFA&IC. 2005-2006 Director, Department of Asia and the Pacific (Asia II), MFA&IC. 2006-2007 Director, Department of International Organisations, MFA&IC. Other main occupations/academic activities: 1992-1995 Member of the Legal Advisory Group on Principles of Utilization of the Mekong River and Related Resources and member of the Inter-Governmental Working Group of the four riparian countries (Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Vietnam) to draft the 1995 Agreement on the Cooperation for the

Sustainable Development of the Mekong River Basin under the auspices of UNDP. 1993-1995:2005-2007
Member of the Cambodian national Mekong Committee. 1995-1996 occasional Visiting Lecturer of International Law, Faculty of Law and Economic Sciences, University of Phnom Penh, Cambodia. 2004-2006 Member of the Academic Board of the University of Cambodia.