OECD Knowledge Sharing Alliance

Facilitating dialogue with emerging and developing economies.

Knowledge sharing is one of the key pillars of the OECD Strategy on Development together with Policy Coherence for Development.

A key output of the Strategy is the Knowledge Sharing Alliance (KSA), created in January 2013. It aims to leverage the OECD's multi-disciplinary expertise, engage in conversations and mutual learning processes with emerging and developing economies, and increase impact by working closely with multi- and bilateral organisations having field presence and implementation capacities and/or networks.

“ Co-create new visions of growth & inclusiveness ”

OBJECTIVES:

- OPEN-UP OECD'S KNOWLEDGE TO PARTNER COUNTRIES
- FACILITATE PEER LEARNING TO CO-PRODUCE KNOWLEDGE
- ESTABLISH FEEDBACK LOOPS TO UPGRADE KNOWLEDGE

SUPPORTED PROJECTS

The Knowledge Sharing Alliance supports knowledge sharing activities in collaboration with several thematic directorates of the OECD.

These activities help creating opportunities for new relations with non- OECD members on the basis of joint learning on equal footing, and including external agencies working on the ground. Supported projects are becoming knowledge sharing platforms on the following policy areas:

An initiative open to all countries

Initially co-created by OECD, Germany and Korea, the Alliance is open to all parties interested in knowledge sharing on equal footing. Please contact us for further information on joining the Alliance: KSA@oecd.org

TOOLS & INSTRUMENTS

Learning Loops

Learning loops are a more recent approach for the OECD and its knowledge sharing concept. They serve as an essential instrument for learning from policy concepts and implementation jointly with emerging and developing economies and together with external agencies as knowledge partners on the ground.
