

CALL FOR PAPERS

7th Annual International Conference on IMMIGRATION IN OECD COUNTRIES

11-12 December 2017
OECD Conference Centre, Paris

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

FREDERIC DOCQUIER (Université Catholique de Louvain)
GIOVANNI PERI (University of California, Davis)

The OECD, the CEPII (the French Research Center in International Economics), and its partners from the University of Lille (LEM), Paris School of Economics, Fondazione Rodolfo De Benedetti, University of Luxembourg and IRES (Université Catholique de Louvain) are jointly organizing the 7th Annual Conference on "Immigration in OECD Countries" on December 11-12, 2017. The conference will examine the economic aspects of international migration in OECD countries by mapping the migratory flows and defining their socio-economic determinants and consequences. Topics of interest for the conference include, among others, the determinants of immigration to the OECD, migrants' self-selection, the labor market and public finance effects of immigration, as well as migrants and refugees social, political and economic integration.

A selection of papers from the conference will be considered for a special issue of The European Economic Review.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING A PAPER

All papers examining immigration in OECD countries from an economic perspective will be considered. Authors must submit a full paper. The author making the submission must provide the full names, affiliations, and email addresses of all coauthors for each submission. Please note that each individual may present only one paper during the conference, though they may be listed as a co-author on multiple papers.

There is no registration fee. A conference dinner will be hosted on 11th December. The organisers are not able to cover travel and accommodation costs of participation to the conference.
