

SHOCK-PROOF: BUILDING RESILIENT SYSTEMS IN THE 21st CENTURY

OECD-NAEC and Open Markets Institute

23 April 2020
Virtual roundtable

Organising Committee:

Barry Lynn, Executive Director, Open Markets Institute
lynn@openmarketsinstitute.org

William Hynes, Head of the New Approaches to Economic Challenges (NAEC) Unit, OECD
william.hynes@oecd.org

Julian Vikan Karaguesian, Adjunct Professor
julian.karaguesian@mcgill.ca

SHOCK-PROOF: BUILDING RESILIENT SYSTEMS IN THE 21st CENTURY

15:00 – 15:10	Introduction Barry Lynn , Executive Director, Open Markets Institute Gabriela Ramos , OECD Chief of Staff and Sherpa
15:10 – 15:15	Paul Romer , Professor of Economics, NYU, Nobel Prize winning economist
15:15 – 15:25	Congressman David Cicilline , Head of the Anti-Trust Sub-Committee in the US House of Representatives
15:25 – 16:10	Panel 1: Why did our production systems fail?  How did the COVID 19 shocks affect international, regional, and national production systems?  Moderator: Rana Foroohar , Associate Editor of the Financial Times Michael Osterholm , Director of the Center for Infectious Disease Research and Policy Yossi Sheffi , Professor, Engineering Systems, Massachusetts Institute of Technology Sharan Burrow , General Secretary of the International Trade Union Confederation Christopher Gopal , Global Supply Chain & Operations Consultant and Educator
16:00– 16.40	Panel 2: The State of Competition Policy  What role if any did changes in competition policy play in making production systems fragile?  Moderator: Rana Foroohar , Associate Editor of the Financial Times Cristina Caffarra , Vice President, Charles Rivers Associates Rohit Chopra , US Federal Trade Commissioner
16.40 - 17.25	Panel 3: Applying Lessons to the Systems of Tomorrow  What lessons can we learn from this event as we thinking about how to build the industrial, financial, and political systems of the future?  Moderator: Barry Lynn , Executive Director, Open Markets Institute Paul Tucker , Chair of the Systemic Risk Council and Fellow at the Harvard Kennedy School Ganesh Sitaraman , Professor of Law, Director, Program in Law and Government, Vanderbilt University, former Senior Advisor to Senator Elizabeth Warren J. Doyne Farmer , Director of Complexity Economics, Institute for New Economic Thinking, and Santa Fe Institute, and Rebuilding Macroeconomics Michael Masters , National Director and Chief Executive Officer of the Secure Community Network
17:25 – 17:55	Reactions  Laurence Boone , Chief Economist, OECD Pascal Lamy , President Emeritus of the Institut Jacques Delors, Former Director-General, World Trade Organization Paul Tucker , Chair of the Systemic Risk Council and Fellow at the Harvard Kennedy School
17:55	Closing remarks