OFFICE CIRCULAR

ADMINISTRATOR (GRADE A2/A3), NUCLEAR SAFETY DIVISION, NUCLEAR ENERGY AGENCY (NEA)

Closing date for applications: 27 September 1996

The OECD is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from female candidates

Role

Under the direction of the Head of the Nuclear Safety Division, the main responsibility of the post-holder will be to serve as secretary to the various working groups involved in nuclear reactor safety and regulation.

Main Duties

1. Serve as secretary to technical and management bodies of working groups, joint research projects and specialist meetings concerned with nuclear safety and regulation and, in particular, with collection and analysis of safety significant operating experience and human factors.

2. Plan and organise activities in the areas concerned, provide guidance to the technical groups, analyse data, prepare working documents and maintain liaison and co-ordination with relevant national administrations and international organisations.
3. Prepare summaries and documentation based on the technical information arising from these activities, co-ordinate and participate in the preparation of state-of-the-art reports and technical notes.

4. Represent the NEA at conferences and international meetings, summarising relevant activities of the NEA.

5. Anticipate the implications of trends, identify the specific needs of Member countries in his/her area of technical expertise and advise the Head of Division on how to respond.

6. Carry out other related duties as assigned.

Principal Qualifications

1. University degree in nuclear engineering, mechanical engineering, applied physics or equivalent professional training.

2. Several years' professional experience in design, operation, regulation or research related to reactor safety. Familiarity with nuclear safety philosophy and regulation.

3. Experience in planning and co-ordinating projects and studies in the areas of reactor safety research and/or safety analysis.

4. Demonstrated ability to determine quickly the essence of an issue, its root causes, conflicting views and to pursue creative resolution.

5. Ability to present complex issues with credibility and impact to varied audiences.

6. Excellent ability to communicate clearly and convincingly, both orally and in writing, in one of the two official languages of the Organisation (English and French); working knowledge of the other.

N.B. The post may be filled at the level immediately below if the qualifications and professional experience of the selected applicant correspond to that level; in this case, the duties and responsibilities assigned to the post will be adjusted accordingly.
GENERAL INFORMATION ON VACANCIES AND APPLICATIONS

Who may apply: Posts in the Organisation are open to both male and female nationals of Member countries. External candidates must be between the ages of 21 and 55 years (for certain posts, the age limit may be exceptionally lowered or raised).

Closing date: The date shown is that at which the selection procedures begin officially. Applications received later will be considered only on an exceptional basis.

Duration of appointment: Unless otherwise mentioned in the Vacancy Notice, in the case of an established official being chosen for the post, an appointment of indefinite duration may be offered, and in all other cases, a fixed-term appointment will be offered.

Grade of appointment: Posts are normally filled at the grade indicated. Some posts, however, may be filled provisionally at the level immediately below if the qualifications and professional experience of the chosen candidate correspond to that level and if such a possibility has been indicated on the vacancy notice. In this case, the duties and responsibilities assigned will be adjusted accordingly.

Place of work: Unless otherwise stated, work will be carried out in Paris. However, for some posts, occasional travel may be required.

Duties: The duties mentioned are the main duties to be carried out at the time of appointment. They may be modified according to the work programme of the Service or with the introduction of new work methods and/or equipment.

Qualifications: The qualifications listed are those which are most important to the performance of the duties mentioned. Their sequence is not an indication of the relative importance attached to them.

Tests: For some posts, candidates may be required to take a written or oral examination. The result will be a factor in the selection.

Interviews: The best-qualified candidates will be called for interview. Those who are not to be interviewed will be so informed. Candidates who are not native speakers of either of the two official languages will be assessed at interview in the official language of their choice -- unless the post in question requires an excellent or very good knowledge of both languages in which case all candidates will be required at interview to demonstrate competency in the two languages.

Final selection: The final selection will be made on the basis of the qualifications mentioned in the Vacancy Notice and in comparison with those of the other candidates. Unsuccessful candidates will be notified not later than one month after the appointment procedure has been completed.

How to apply: Those who wish to apply for this post should do so on an application form obtainable from the Personnel Service. Applications should be sent to this Service, accompanied by supporting documentation, such as titles of publications and/or copies of diplomas, as appropriate.

February 1996