3. Investment, Trade and Sustainable Development

Following the CIME’s September meeting, the Secretariat prepared a complete draft of chapter 5 of the analytical report on sustainable development [SG/SD(2000)11] which is to be discussed at meetings of the Joint Working Party on Trade and Environment on 20 November and in the Trade Committee Working Party on 4-5 December. The CIME will hear a report on the results of these meetings and be invited to discuss the draft chapter.

The Committee will also be informed of the procedure envisaged for finalising the analytical report and the policy report to be presented to the Ministerial Meeting in May 2001 as the culmination of the three-year horizontal project on sustainable development.

4. Private Initiatives for Corporate Responsibility: An Analysis

Delegates are invited to discuss the Secretariat’s note [DAFFE/IME(2000)21] which provides an analysis of the private initiatives undertaken so far and assesses their implications for policy. The Committee will also be invited to decide on next steps including proposed publication of the analytical and fact-finding material reviewed by the Committee and issues for possible further work [DAFFE/IME(2000)21/ADD1].

5. Investment Policy Analysis

The Committee will be invited to examine the suggestions for future work on selected investment topics based on the work of the ad hoc groups established at the CIME’s last meeting. For each topic, Delegations will need to consider the scope of work, working methods and timing, taking account of resource implications.

6. United Nations High Level Inter-government Event on "Financing for Development"

Delegations will be informed of the latest developments in preparations for a major United Nations event in late 2001 or 2002 on Financing for Development to which the OECD Secretariat has been contributing. The Committee will be invited to consider how best to contribute to this project which contains a substantial component on international investment.

7. Declassification of MAI Documents

The Committee will be invited to consider and approve a draft report to Council [DAFFE/IME(2000)32 and ANNEX]. The Secretariat has prepared the draft report on the basis of the CIME’s discussion in April 2000 and subsequent advice received from the Fiscal Affairs Committee.

8. Work of Other Committees and International Organisations

The Committee may also wish to discuss investment-related projects underway in other Committees on the basis of the inventory of such work prepared by the Secretariat [DAFFE/IME/RD(2000)6/REV2].

9. Relations with Non-Members

a. Activities of the CIME Advisory Group on Non-Members*

The Committee will be informed of the results of the first meeting of CIME’s ad hoc group investment activities with non members which took place in Vienna on 10 November [DAFFE/IME(2000)25]. Delegations may wish to comment on this report or on the investment activities summarised in DAFFE/IME(2000)26.

b. Global Investment Forum*

Delegates will be invited to discuss the CIME’s contribution to the proposed Global Forum for international Investment on the basis of the Secretariat Note [DAFFE/IME(2000)27*] prepared in co-operation with the Centre for Co-operation with Non Members.

c. Observerships and Other Forms of Participation in CIME*

The Committee will be invited to seek consensus on a proposal to define the modalities of non member participation in CIME activities, especially with respect to non-members that adhere to the Declaration for International Investment and Multinational Enterprises. For this purpose, the Secretariat has prepared a short note [DAFFE/IME(2000)17*] for consideration by the Committee that takes account of the discussions at the CIME in September, and subsequent consultations including at the advisory group meeting in Vienna. The views of Belgium and France have been circulated separately [DAFFE/IME/RD(2000)23 and DAFFE/IME/RD(2000)24].

d. Singapore’s Request for Observership*

Singapore has submitted an official request for observership in the CIME [C(2000)211]. If the Council decides to transmit this request to the CIME for a technical opinion, the CIME will be invited to consider whether it wishes to recommend to the Council that the CIME be authorised to proceed with an examination of Singapore with a view to determining its ability and willingness to meet the requirements of CIME observership.

* Confidential item or document(s).
e. South East Europe (SEE) Compact for Reform, Investment, Integrity and Growth

The Committee will be informed of progress in implementing the Investment Compact for South East Europe.

It will also hear a report on the Vienna conference on implementing best policy practices, held on 8-9 November, and be invited to consider the contribution it can make to the follow-up action plan.

f. Study of the Economic Impact of FDI in the Chinese Economy

The Committee will be invited to comment on the study of the economic impact of FDI in the Chinese economy [DAFFE/IME(2000)31]. They will also be informed on future work relating to the comparative review of Chinese investment, the ongoing policies which have been launched at the Xiamen Conference on 11-12 September 2000.

g. Russia: Enabling Environment of Foreign Investment

The Committee will be brought up to date on the status of the comprehensive study of the enabling environment for foreign investment in the Russian Federation, in particular the results of the 6 December Steering Group meeting in Moscow at which a first draft of the full study was discussed. The draft Policy Conclusions and Recommendations (PART III of the study), reflecting the results of this expert meeting will be circulated [DAFFE/IME/RD(2000)27]. It is envisaged that the complete document will be submitted to delegates for comment under written procedure during the month of January.

h. Muenster Process: Results of the Moscow Conference and Follow-up

The “Muenster Process” is designed to promote best policy practices for promoting economic development in transition countries of Eastern Europe. The Committee will be informed of the results of the Moscow conference to be held on 5 December and will be invited to consider how CIME might best contribute to future activities of the Muenster process.

10. Future work and other business

The Committee may wish to discuss the timetable and agenda for its next meetings scheduled for the week of 9-13 April 2001.
