The OECD is an international organisation based in Paris with some 2000 staff. We are looking for an Advisor to work on exchange of information issues in the International Co-operation and Exchange of Information Unit of the International Co-operation, Exchange of Information and Harmful Tax Practices Division. This person will work under the supervision of the Head of International Co-operation and Exchange of Information Unit and will be responsible for servicing the Committee on Fiscal Affairs (CFA) in areas relating to the exchange of information within the Directorate for Financial, Fiscal and Enterprise Affairs.

The job...

1. Service the Committee on Fiscal Affairs and its subsidiary bodies, in particular, Working Party No. 8 on Tax Avoidance and Evasion.

2. Identify ways in which non-member countries can be more closely associated with the CFA’s work on the exchange of information and other forms of administrative assistance.

3. Identify ways to improve the legal and practical aspects of the exchange of information including the use of new technologies.

4. Monitor development in international co-operation on exchange of information matters and follow relevant discussions in other international fora.

The person we are looking for should have...

1. An advanced university degree in law, accounting, public finance or relevant professional qualifications on exchange of information.

2. At least 5 years’ experience in providing tax advice to governments or the private sector and/or experience as a tax examiner would constitute a definite advantage.
