The job...

2. Assist in monitoring the 1995 Transfer Pricing Guidelines and improving their relevance and practical application, particularly in the financial sector and to issues related to thin capitalisation and stock options.

3. Contribute to the outreach activities of the Committee on Fiscal Affairs with the Asian, Latin American and other non-OECD economies in the area of transfer pricing and financial transactions.

4. Assist in the horizontal work of the Division on matters related to transfer pricing and financial transactions.

5. Monitor developments in international transfer pricing and the financial sector and follow relevant discussions in international fora.
The person we are looking for should have...

1. An advanced university degree in law, economics, public finance, accounting, or professional qualifications in transfer pricing.

2. Three to seven years’ experience in transfer pricing and in the taxation issues arising from financial transactions including thin capitalisation and stock options acquired in a national administration, an international organisation or in the private sector.

3. Capacity, confirmed by experience, to co-ordinate work with other professional staff, to establish and maintain contacts with senior officials and to lead discussions in Committees.

4. Ability to adapt to an international working environment and to work as a member of a multicultural team.

5. Excellent knowledge of one of the two official languages of the Organisation (English and French) and ability to draft well in that language; good knowledge of the other.

N.B. The appointment may initially be made at the level immediately below if the qualifications and professional experience of the selected applicant correspond to that level; in this case, the duties and responsibilities assigned to the post will be adjusted accordingly.

We are an equal opportunity employer and encourage applications from female candidates.

Applications (in English or French) from nationals of OECD Member countries should quote reference EXD/HRM/VAC(2003)032 and be sent via our on-line application form on www.oecd.org (click on recruitment) by 8th May 2003.

Only candidates selected for interview will be contacted.
