As recent events have made fiscal risks more complex and more important than ever, the OECD is pleased to organise a virtual meeting on OECD Best Practices for Managing Fiscal Risks.

Delphine.moretti@oecd.org

JT03463404
Virtual meeting

Draft agenda

23 June 2020

14:45 – 15:00 Paris time (GMT+2)

Log-on to Zoom platform and test of audio/video

This meeting will take place remotely using the Zoom videoconference platform. Delegates are asked to connect to the platform 15 minutes before the meeting begins in order to test their connection and familiarise themselves with the functionality. Further guidance on connecting to the platform will be sent separately.

15:00 Welcome

• Jón Blöndal, Head of Public Management and Budgeting, Directorate for Public Governance, OECD

15:10 – 16:00

Presentations

The OECD Secretariat will present its report OECD Best Practices for Managing Fiscal Risks, including practical examples to be considered by countries for strengthening their frameworks and increasing the resilience of their public finances. (Reports attached.) Following this presentation, Delegates from the Netherlands, New Zealand and the United Kingdom will lead-off the discussion, including highlighting key features of their national frameworks and how they have been applied in the context of the COVID-19 crisis

Speakers:
- Delphine Moretti, Lead, Financial Management and Reporting, OECD
- Simon McLoughlin, Economic Counsellor, The Treasury, New Zealand
- Abraham Miro, Senior Advisor, Budgetary Policy, Ministry of Finance, the Netherlands
- Graham Prentice, Lead, Balance Sheet Analysis, HM Treasury, United Kingdom

16:00-16.30

Questions and answers

16:30

Closing by Chairman