Practical information

Journalists in Asia/Pacific time zones will be allowed advance access, on request, to electronic versions of these publications by e-mail under embargo 12 hours ahead of their respective release times. Journalists in other time-zones will be allowed advance access to e-mail versions 4 hours ahead of release time. Publication of the economic surveys by country will be accompanied by open-access publication at the announced release time on the OECD’s website http://www.oecd.org/media of a Policy Brief in pdf format giving their main conclusions.

The studies will be sent by e-mail on request only. Requests to receive these studies by e-mail under embargo or to obtain a password to access the website should be sent by fax or e-mail to Nicole Le Vourch (nicole.levourch@oecd.org) or Sonia Primot (sonia.primot@oecd.org) in the Media Relations Division (fax: 33 1 45 24 80 03). Printed copies of the reports, where available, will be mailed to journalists that have requested them the day before publication.
