

JURGEN BOYD: FSB

Jurgen is a qualified Chartered Accountant. He joined the Financial Services Board in 2000 as the Head of the Collective Investment Schemes Department, where his key responsibilities included effectively managing a department tasked with the regulation and supervision of the CIS Industry in South Africa. In May 2006 he was appointed to his current position as the Deputy Executive Officer of Retirement Funds, and his mandate includes oversight of the regulation and supervision of the R1,2-trillion Retirement Funds industry.