International Launch of PISA 2009 Report TRENDS IN PERFORMANCE SINCE 2000

The Organisation of Economic Development and Co-operation (OECD) together with the Polish Government and the Educational Research Institute (IBE) are organising the international launch of the Volume V of the PISA 2009 International Report on “Learning Trends: Changes in Student Performance Since 2000”.

The seminar will be in English and will take place at the Chancellery of the Prime Minister of Poland, Aleje Ujazdowskie 1/3, Column Hall, Warsaw, Poland on February 10th, 2011, from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. The seminar programme attached.

The first session will be dedicated to presenting the report. The second session “Evidence in Educational Policy” will be a discussion on the policy and performance of some countries which have successfully improved their performance in PISA between 2000 and 2009: Germany, Hungary, Poland, and Portugal.

OECD experts, Polish parliamentarians and representatives of public administration, representatives of research and educational institutions, and other experts in the field of education from EU member states will be participating.

Participation is free of charge. The organisers will provide conference materials. Participants are responsible for their travel and accommodation in Warsaw. To register and for practical information, please contact Ms. Monika Karwat-Bury, phone +48 22 24 17 161; e-mail: seminaria@ibe.edu.pl.

The Seminar is part of the series: “Evidence in Educational Policy” carried out within the Project: Quality and school effectiveness and institutionalisation of its research infrastructure organised by the Educational Research Institute (IBE).
