

Kyung Hun Jeong
Deputy Minister for Territorial and Urban Development
Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport (MOLIT)
Republic of Korea

Biography

Mr. Jeong, Kyung Hun is Deputy Minister for Territorial and Urban Development at the Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport of the Republic of Korea.

He is responsible for Korea's territorial and urban policies, which are people-centered focusing on balanced regional development.

Before taking up his current duties, Mr. Jeong held various senior positions at the Ministry, regarding Korea's long-term national land development plan, Smart Cities where well-built urban infrastructure supports people's lives, construction policies, land use, etc.

He studied international economics at Seoul National University, Korea and holds a Master's degree in Social Policy from University of Birmingham, UK. He joined civil services by passing the National Higher Civil Service Examination in 1991.