

Mr Simon Cramp
Chargé d'affaires a.i
Australian Delegation to the OECD

Biography

Mr Cramp has been Chargé d'affaires of Australia's Delegation to the OECD since January 2019. Prior to his appointment as Deputy Permanent Representative, Mr Cramp was most recently Director of Private Sector Development for Australia's Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

Mr Cramp has worked in Australia's Foreign Affairs portfolio for over 15 years, across of range of bilateral, regional and multilateral areas.

He has served on mission in Vanuatu as Director of Australia's ground-breaking Governance for Growth Program and in Vietnam on regional economic growth and health.

Mr Cramp's career has focussed on economic growth, public private partnerships and governance in emerging markets, particularly in the Asia Pacific.

He has also served as Australia's representative to a range multilateral bodies including UNHCR and ICRC.

Mr Cramp holds a Bachelor of Commerce (University of Queensland), Bachelor of Science - Honours 1st class (University of Queensland and Queensland University of Technology) and Masters in International Relations (Australian National University).