

Amanda Bryan
Chair
Crown Estate Scotland

Amanda Bryan is Chair of Crown Estate Scotland an organisation that manages Crown land and assets on behalf of Scottish Ministers. She has extensive experience in rural and community development and stakeholder engagement and is based in the Highlands near Inverness. She currently holds two other public appointments as Forestry Commissioner for Scotland, chairing the Forestry Commission's National Committee for Scotland and as a Board Member for Highlands and Islands Enterprise. Amanda is also Chair of the Isle of Eigg Heritage Trust, a community owned estate, and a part-time lecturer at the Scottish School of Forestry, Inverness College UHI.