

Table of contents

Executive summary	9
Chapter 1 The future of families to 2030: an overview of projections, policy challenges and policy options by Barrie Stevens and Pierre-Alain Schieb.....	15
Introduction.....	16
Future changes in family and household composition.....	17
Factors shaping the family landscape to 2030.....	25
Using stylised scenarios to explore alternative futures.....	39
Scenario implications.....	44
Policy challenges and policy options.....	47
Note.....	51
Bibliography.....	52
Chapter 2 The future for low-income families and social cohesion by Susan Harkness.....	57
Introduction.....	58
The current state of low-income families.....	58
Policy and family poverty.....	73
Social cohesion.....	85
The future of low-income families.....	92
Issues for policy in 2030.....	99
Conclusion.....	104
Notes.....	106
Bibliography.....	107
Chapter 3 Work-family life balance: future trends and challenges by Jeanne Fagnani...	119
Current challenges and slow-moving trends: a brief overview.....	120
How do working parents cope with their family obligations? Dilemmas, tensions and strategies.....	128
Work-family conflict and its impact on mothers’ employment rates and patterns and on fertility.....	133
Key drivers of change in work-family life arrangements from 2010 onwards.....	135
Other key drivers: towards a new “gender contract”?.....	149
Challenges and opportunities facing work-family life balance policy makers to 2030.....	152
Work-family life balance in the “Golden Age?” and “Back to Basics” scenarios.....	157
Work-family life balance in the “Golden Age?” scenario.....	158
Work-family life balance in the “Back to Basics” scenarios.....	164
Notes.....	170
Annex 3.A1. International good practice in family policy: some examples.....	171
Annex 3.A2. Tables and figures.....	177
Bibliography.....	181

Chapter 4 The role of the elderly as providers and recipients of care by Klaus Haberkern, Tina Schmid, Franz Neuberger and Michel Grignon.....	189
The role of the elderly as providers and recipients of care in 2030.....	190
Demographic structure and developments	191
Support networks: the role of the elderly in family and society.....	193
Elderly persons and their families in a changing world	194
Future policy challenges to 2030.....	228
Changes in the balance of funding responsibilities between the state and private individuals.....	231
General issues.....	240
Note	246
Bibliography.....	247
Annex A	259
Annex B.....	271
Annex C	273
Tables
Table 2.1. Summary of changes in poverty.....	59
Table 2.2. Poverty reduction in families with children (mid-1990s)	75
Table 2.3. Percentage of non-widowed lone parents receiving child maintenance	81
Table 2.4. Contribution of child maintenance.....	81
Table 3.1. Distribution of working hours among adults in couples	129
Table 3.2. Men in the United States working 50 or more hours per week (late 1970s and late 2000s)	140
Table 3.3. The impact of the 35-hours laws in France	141
Table 3.4. Increase in the numbers of atypical jobs, “mini-jobs” and standard jobs in Germany (2002-09)	144
Table 3.5. Time spent commuting, by gender, and the presence of children in the household	147
Table 3.6. Share of employed individuals who “strongly agree” or “agree” that their work is too demanding and stressful: evolution (1996-2007)	148
Table 3.7. Share of people (employed individuals) for whom it has been difficult to fulfil their family responsibilities because of the amount of time spent on the job “several times a week” or “several times a month”	149
Table 3.8. The impact of workplace flexibility on employees and employers: summary ..	151
Table 3.A2.1. Distribution of working hours among women in couple families by number of children aged 0-14 years (2007)	177
Table 3.A2.2. Trends in employment patterns for couple parent families with a child under six.....	178
Table 3.A2.3. Labour force participation rates (55-64 age group): evolution 1994-2008	180
Table 3.A2.4. Percentage of children aged under three attending childcare facilities or being cared for by child minders in Germany: evolution 1994-2009	180
Table 4.1. Legal and normative family obligations (selected countries)	203
Table 4.2. Living arrangements of the elderly aged 75 and over in European countries (2000-2030)	243
Table 4.3. Long-term care policies (national level)	244

Table A.1.	Macro-level drivers applied to the “Golden Age?”	262
Table A.2.	Family drivers applied to the “Golden Age?”	264
Table A.3.	Core themes applied to the “Golden Age?”	266
Table A.4.	Macro-level drivers applied to “Back to Basics”	268
Table A.5.	Family drivers applied to “Back to Basics”	269
Table A.6.	Core themes applied to “Back to Basics”	270
Table B.1.	Unexpected events that could change business-as-usual trends	271

Figures

Figure 1.1.	One-person households	19
Figure 1.2.	Single-parent families	20
Figure 1.3.	Couples without children	21
Figure 1.4.	Couples with children	22
Figure 1.5.	One-person households	23
Figure 1.6.	Single-parent households	24
Figure 1.7.	Projected life expectancy rates for OECD member countries	27
Figure 1.8.	Urban annual growth rate (%)	29
Figure 1.9.	Share of women in tertiary education enrolments (1995, 2005 and projections)	31
Figure 1.10.	Population ageing and labour force participation in OECD member countries	33
Figure 1.11.	Life expectancy outlook in Finland based on calculations of the elimination of certain causes of death and on expert estimates concerning expected trends in national diseases	35
Figure 1.12.	Internet use by persons aged 75 and older (2005-2030)	36
Figure 1.13.	Socio-economic scenarios over the next 20 years	40
Figure 1.14.	The “Golden Age?” and “Back to Basics” scenarios applied to different country-specific situations	46
Figure 2.1.	Relative poverty rates for different income thresholds (mid-2000s)	60
Figure 2.2.	Risk of poverty by age of individuals, mid-1970s to mid-2000s, OECD average	62
Figure 2.3.	Risk of relative poverty of men and women by age, OECD average (mid-2000s)	63
Figure 2.4.	Poverty rates by household type (mid-2000s)	64
Figure 2.5.	Poverty and employment rates (around mid-2000s)	70
Figure 2.6.	Shares of poor people by number of workers in the household (mid-2000s)	71
Figure 2.7.	Female employment by education	72
Figure 2.8.	Poverty rates and social spending for people of working age and retirement age (mid-2000s)	76
Figure 2.9.	Income gradients in outcomes in middle childhood (United Kingdom)	82
Figure 2.10.	Persistent poverty	85
Figure 2.11.	Poverty exit rates	87
Figure 2.12.	Share of young adults and teenagers not in education or employment (1995, 2003, 2008)	89
Figure 3.1.	Public expenditure on childcare and preschool, per child (2007)	121
Figure 3.2.	Use of informal childcare arrangements during a typical week by children’s age (2008)	123
Figure 3.3.	Incidence of part-time employment (2009)	133
Figure 3.4.	Gender gap in employment rates (2009)	134
Figure 3.5.	Total fertility rates in 1970, 1995 and 2009 (children per woman)	135

Figure 3.6.	Change in the distribution of employment status among couple households (1994-2007).....	136
Figure 3.7.	Share of companies offering telework arrangements.....	143
Figure 3.8.	Incidence of temporary employment in dependant employment (2009)	146
Figure 3.A2.1.	Change in the % share of women’s part-time employment rates (2000-2009).....	179
Figure 3.A2.2.	Average time spent travelling to and from work.....	179
Figure 4.1.	Percent of 65-79 year-olds and over-80 year-olds in the population, 2010 and 2050	192
Figure 4.2.	Balance in support (providers minus receivers), share of age group	194
Figure 4.3.	Living arrangements of women aged 75 and over, 2000 to 2030 (FELICIE countries).....	197
Figure 4.4.	Mean age at mother’s death (1920-2000)	199
Figure 4.5.	Grandmother’s expected healthy life years and average age at birth of first grandchild, and female employment 55-65 years	200
Figure 4.6.	Share of population aged 65 and over using social alarms	217
Figure 4.7.	Grandchild care and family policy.....	222
Figure 4.8.	Long-term care policies, societal opinion and intergenerational care.....	223