

City Water Profile Banjul, the Gambia

Population (in million)

Megatrends affecting water management

- Climate change
- Demographic changes
- Global shocks
- Urbanisation
- Economic development
- Food insecurity

Water risks

- Droughts
- Water pollution
- Floods
- Access to water and sanitation
- Ageing or missing infrastructure
- Water borne diseases
- Competition over water allocation

Policy areas influencing urban water management

- No information available

Obstacles to water governance

- 0: No answer
- 1: Not an obstacle
- 2: Limited obstacles
- 3: Major obstacles

National and local policy frameworks

National level

- Dedicated national water and sanitation policy indicating goals duties and resources
- Recognition of the UN right to Water and Sanitation

Local level

- No information available

Transparency and accountability mechanisms

- No information available

Forward-looking strategies

Low

- Develop legal or regulatory frameworks
- Enhance stakeholder engagement
- Foster cooperation with cities and/or national governments
- Catalyse water financing
- Build capacity of officials and stakeholders
- Build, operate or maintain water infrastructure