

Bio: Rune Stig Mortensen

Rune Stig Mortensen is head of the division of Strategy and Analysis in the Region of Southern Denmark and is responsible for the Regional Development Plan. He is responsible for moving forward the agenda of measuring the well-being and progress of the region in order to better reflect individuals' living conditions beyond and as a supplement to economic aggregates, such as GDP.

He has formerly held positions as head of the regional Growth Forum Secretariat as well as Business development and International affairs. Formerly he was Principal Private Secretary to the minister at the Danish Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation and has worked in the Finance division in the ministry. In addition, he has experience from the sector of IT and telecommunication. He has a master in philosophy and language, as well as a master in Public Management.