

Call for papers – 2019 OECD Global Anti-Corruption & Integrity Forum

The OECD Global Anti-Corruption & Integrity Forum provides an excellent opportunity to meet with internationally renowned political and business leaders, policy makers, anti-corruption experts and practitioners, civil society representatives and academics.

In the run up to the 2019 Forum, the OECD calls for high quality conceptual papers, as well as qualitative and quantitative empirical research papers focused on topics related to integrity and anti-corruption. Innovative topics, especially related to the risks and opportunities of new technologies, are especially encouraged.

In order to encourage the participation of young researchers and academics, applicants are required to be under the age of 40 or to be enrolled in a Master's, Doctoral or Post-Doc programme.

Present your research

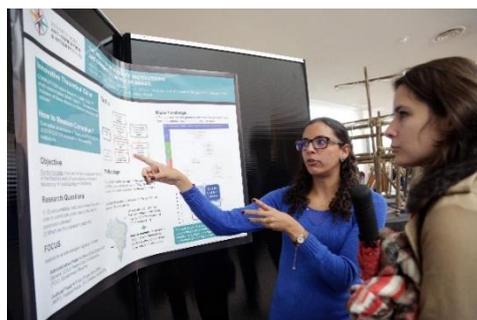

Selected papers will be published on the Forum website and the authors will have the opportunity to present their paper at the 2019 forum in form of a poster presentation and a 5-minute research pitch (with Q&A). All costs related to the production of the posters will be borne by the OECD. For the authors of the 10 best submissions ("golden category"), travel costs to Paris will be reimbursed. Other high-quality submissions may be selected as well ("silver category") (See 2018 papers and posters).

KEY DATES

- Submission of abstract by 5 November 2018
- Results notified by 30 November 2018
- Poster outline due: 31 January 2019
- Final selected paper due: 31 January 2019
- Presentation at Global Anti-Corruption & Integrity Forum: 20-21 March 2019

Guidelines for submissions

Email your abstract outlining the key findings and methodology of your paper (max. 500 words) by 5 November 2018 with your complete contact information and proof of eligibility (age or enrolment in academic programme) to: integrityforum@oecd.org. The organisers will acknowledge receipt and notify the applicants of its decision by 30 November 2018.

In March 2018, 18 posters were presented at the Forum

Abstracts will be evaluated by a panel of experts, who will apply the following criteria: relevance to ongoing global debates in the area of integrity and anti-corruption, results for advancing the evidence-base, methodology, innovative character and critical academic thinking.

Final papers should be max. 20 pages long, double-spaced including references. The final document as well as an outline of the poster should be sent electronically by 31 January 2019.

Please note that papers that have already been published will not be accepted. However, once presented at the Forum, the author is free to have the paper published on other platforms.

Possible thematic areas for papers

- Risk and opportunities of new technologies in the field of integrity and anti-corruption
- Anti-corruption, economic development and innovation
- Policy capture, lobbying, political party financing and democratic governance
- Behavioural economics related to integrity and anti-corruption
- Gender and inclusiveness dimensions in the field of integrity and anti-corruption