

Stephen P. Groff

Vice-President Operations Asian Development Bank (ADB)

Stephen Groff is ADB's Vice President responsible for the full range of the Bank's operations in East Asia, Southeast Asia, and the Pacific. He is also responsible for the Central Operations Services Office. His mandate includes establishing strategic and operational priorities in his areas of responsibility, producing investment and technical assistance operations amounting to $4-5 billion annually, managing an existing portfolio of about $23 billion, and leading about 700 staff.

In addition, Mr. Groff supports ADB's President in managing the Bank's overall operations, represents ADB in high-level multilateral fora, and contributes to managing its relationships with its 67 member country shareholders, other multilateral financial institutions, and key government, private sector, and civil society partners. Prior to joining ADB, Mr. Groff was the Deputy Director of the OECD Development Co-operation Directorate and the Deputy Vice President for Operations at the Millennium Challenge Corporation in the U.S.

