OECD Secretary-General’s High-Level Advisory Group on Anti-Corruption and Integrity

Who's Who?
Nancy Boswell (United States)

Nancy Boswell is an adjunct law professor and Director, US & International Anti-Corruption Law Program at the American University Washington College of Law in Washington, D.C. From 1994 to 2011, Ms Boswell was President and CEO of Transparency International- USA (TI-USA). She serves on the USAID Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, the Ethics & Compliance Initiative board of directors and the Steering Committee of the ABA International Law Section Anti-Corruption Committee. She was a member of the Board of Directors of Transparency International (TI).

Peter Eigen (Germany)

Peter Eigen has worked in economic development and governance for several decades, and has led initiatives for better governance and the fight against corruption worldwide. In 1993, Peter Eigen founded Transparency International (TI). From 1993 to 2005, he was Chair of Transparency International, and is now the chairman of the TI’s Advisory Council.

Jorge Hage (Brazil)

Jorge Hage Sobrinho has been a professor at the Federal University of Bahia and held the positions of Mayor of Salvador, State Congressman and Federal Congressman. From 1991 to 2002, Mr. Hage was a judge in Brasília. From 2003 to 2006 he was Vice-Minister, and from 2006 to 2014, held the position of Minister of State, as Head of the Office of the Comptroller General of Brazil, which is one of the anticorruption and integrity agencies in the Brazilian Government.
Professor Takeyoshi Imai (Japan)

Since 2002, Professor Imai has taught at the Law School of Hosei University in Japan. He is on the Editorial Board of the Journal of Money Laundering Control, and has published himself on organised crime in Japan. Prof. Imai is a member of Japan Criminal Law Association; Director, Criminal law Subcommittee, Legislative Council, the Ministry of Justice; and a member of Bidding Monitoring Committee, the Cabinet Secretariat and the Cabinet Office.

Daniel Kaufmann (United States/Chile)

Daniel Kaufmann is currently a non-resident senior fellow in the Global Economy and Development Program at the Brookings Institution. He is currently president of the Natural Resource Governance Institute. Mr. Kaufmann is also a member of the Global Agenda Council at the World Economic Forum, a member of the board of the Natural Resource Governance Institute, as well as a member of the advisory boards of Transparency International and the Mo Ibrahim Foundation.

Huguette Labelle (Canada)

Huguette Labelle served for 19 years as deputy head of different Canadian government departments including the Secretary of State, Transport Canada, the Public Service Commission, and the Canadian International Development Agency. Ms. Labelle is a former Chair of the Board of Directors of Transparency International. She currently Chairs the Independent Advisory Board for Appointments to the Senate of Canada, is Vice-chair of the International Anti-Corruption Academy International Senior Advisory Board and serves on other Boards and Councils.
Enery Quinones (United States)

From 2004 to 2014, Enery Quinones was the Chief Compliance Officer at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD). Prior to joining the EBRD, Ms. Quinones was Head of the OECD Anti-Corruption Division. Having played a key role in developing the OECD’s anti-bribery instruments, she then developed and oversaw the implementation of the first international mechanism to monitor compliance among States Parties to the Anti-Bribery Convention.

Dr. Tina Søreide (Norway)

Tina Søreide is a Professor of Law and Economics at the Norwegian School of Economics (NHH). She holds a PhD in economics (NHH), had a post doc position in criminal law at the University of Bergen, and has been a visiting scholar at Yale. She was previously employed by the World Bank, Washington DC and the Chr. Michelsen Institute (CMI). Prof. Søreide studies law enforcement, industry regulation and development. She has published extensively on anti-corruption, and has worked as a consultant on G20 and OECD anti-corruption initiatives.

Neville Tiffen (Australia)

Neville Tiffen is a specialist consultant in corporate governance, integrity and compliance. He is an independent member of the Integrity Committee of the Department of Education in Victoria and is a Fellow of the Governance Institute of Australia. He was formerly Global Head of Compliance at Rio Tinto and has also held other senior positions for Rio Tinto, including Regional General Counsel – US/South America, Chief Counsel – Australia and Corporate Secretary/Chief Counsel for Comalco.