

André Laboul

Head of the OECD Financial Affairs Division Secretary General of the International Organization of Pension Supervisors

André Laboul is the Head of the Financial Affairs Division at the “Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development” (OECD); This Division is responsible for financial markets, private insurance and private pensions issues and is servicing the eight OECD related financial Committees and Groups (including the OECD Committee on Financial Markets and the OECD Committee on Insurance and Private Pensions).

Mr Laboul is also the Secretary General of the “International Organisation of Pensions Supervisors” (IOPS) , the Executive Secretary of the “International network on financial education” (INFE) and the Managing Editor of the “Journal of Pension Economics and Finance”, edited by the Cambridge University Press. He is also currently member of the World Economic Forum Global Agenda Council on demographic shifts and expert to the European Commission Group of experts on financial education.

Mr Laboul wrote the first major international studies on bank/insurance and on regulation of private pensions and was instrumental in the development by the OECD of various major international policy projects, including on financial education, terrorism insurance, financial management of catastrophic risks and financial risk transfers.

Before joining the OECD, he worked in Belgium at the Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS), the Centre for Law and Economic Research (CRIDE) and the Prime Minister services for Science Policy.

Mr Laboul is both an Economist and a Lawyer, with degrees from universities of Liège and Louvain-La-Neuve.
