

Personal Data Protection Notice for the Career Readiness project

The OECD is committed to protecting the personal data it processes, in accordance with its Personal Data Protection Rules.

The Education Directorate is collecting some personal data, including participant contact details, country/region, job title and affiliation to support its Career Readiness project. The data will be used to enable participation in project events and follow-up communications for interested participants.

The personal data we collect will be stored on OECD servers. Only the directorate staff have access to your data.

The sessions of the conference “Disrupted Futures: International lessons on how schools can best equip students for their working lives”, held on 27-29 October 2021, will be recorded in order to prepare conference proceedings, some session recordings may also be made publicly available after the event. Participants who don’t wish their video to be recorded, are asked to switch off their cameras.

Under the Rules, you have rights to access and rectify your personal data, as well as to object to its processing, request erasure, and obtain data portability in certain circumstances. To exercise these rights in connection with Career Readiness project, please contact Mr. Anthony Mann (Anthony.Mann@oecd.org).

If you have further queries or complaints related to the processing of your personal data, please contact the Data Protection Officer. If you need further assistance in resolving claims related to personal data protection you can contact the Data Protection Commissioner.
