

Conclusions for Policy: Unlocking the Potential of Higher Education

Rachel Bard, Deputy Minister
Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour
New Brunswick, CANADA

Atlantic Canada

CANADA

Competing for Tomorrow

Priorities

- Improving Access
- Enhancing Quality
- Increasing Participation in the Labour Force
- Developing Workplace Skills
- Expanding Research and Innovation

Pan-Canadian Themes in PSE

- The Knowledge Economy and the Global Environment
- Accessibility: Recruitment, Retention, and Success
- Affordability: Funding and Student Financial Assistance

Pan-Canadian Themes (cont.)

- International Students and Under-represented Groups
- Integration/ Collaboration
- Quality/ Accountability

The Atlantic Provinces

Challenges for Atlantic Canada

- Infrastructure
- Research and Innovation
- Faculty Renewal
- Attracting International Students
- Adult Literacy and Lifelong Learning
- Skills Development

NEW BRUNSWICK

New Brunswick's PSE Commission

- Accessibility
- Relevancy and Responsiveness
- Quality and Accountability
- Efficiency
- Collaboration with Differentiation
- Affordability

Solutions

- Meeting the Demographic Challenge
- Immigration
- Recruitment and Retention
- Partnerships and Consultation
- Research and Innovation

Education for the 21st Century

---

- CAMET website <http://camet-camef.ca/>
- NB PSE Commission website
<http://www.gnb.ca/cpse-ceps/EN/index.html>
- Province of NB <http://www.gnb.ca/>
- Competing for Tomorrow is available at <http://www.councilofthefederation.ca/pdfs/PSE%20Strategy-July-ENG.pdf>
- Rachel Bard - rachel.bard@gnb.ca