

English language standards in higher education

Associate Professor Sophie Arkoudis

Australian Higher Education Standards Framework

Provider Standards

Qualifications Standards

Information Standards

Teaching and Learning Standards

Research Standards

Foreign students' English standards not sufficient, claims Auditor General

24 HIGHER EDUCATION

THE AUSTRALIAN, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 2012
www.theaustralian.com.au/higher-education

Unis urged to get serious about English proficiency

Extend tougher language standards

*The Auck H
16/3/2011*

Three key areas for attention

- 1. English language should be included within teaching and learning standards

TEQSA first quality assessment will be on English language

2. English language integrated within disciplinary curricula

The locus of responsibilities for English language learning outcomes.

Focus of my 2012 National Teaching Fellowship

<http://www.cshe.unimelb.edu.au/people/arkoudis.html>

3. Robust and trustworthy assessment of language skills near graduation

English language assessment included within capstone experiences

English Language Standards in Higher Education

From entry to exit

Sophie Arkoudis, Chi Baik
and Sarah Richardson

Foreword by Simon Marginson

