

”School leadership in practice”

Torben Mørup
Headmaster PD
Nordvangskolen Esbjerg

Esbjerg –port to the Northsea

”School leadership in practice”

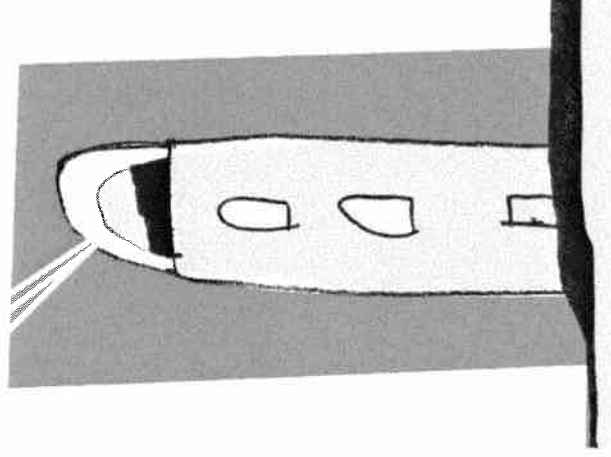

- Code for good school leadership
- Relations and challenges

Relations

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

Good school leadership is

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

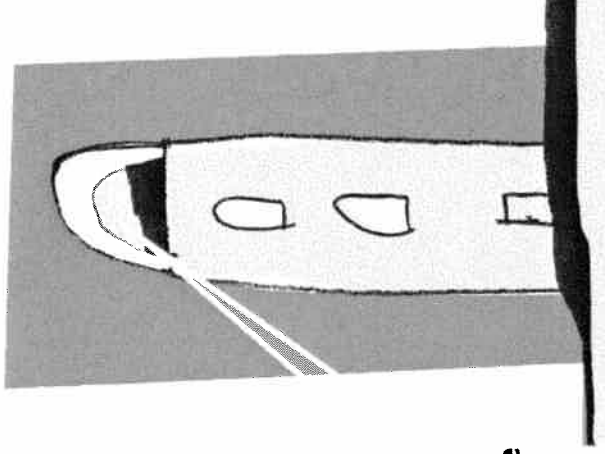

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

Good school leadership is:

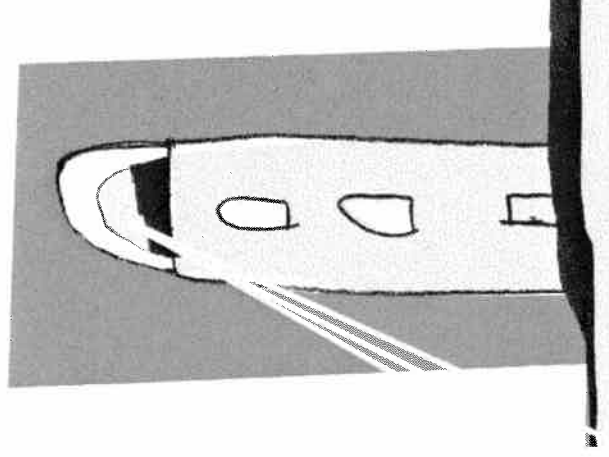

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

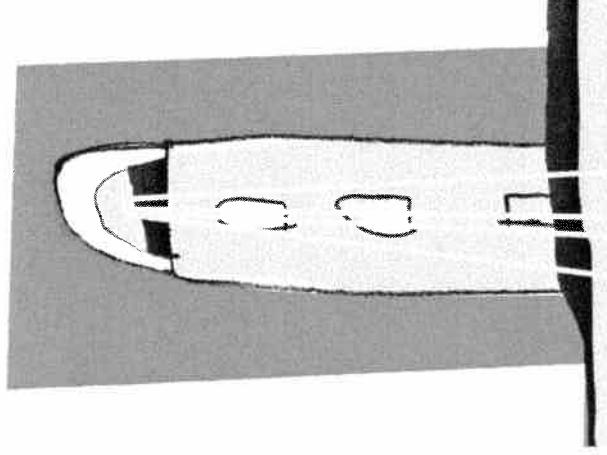

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes

6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

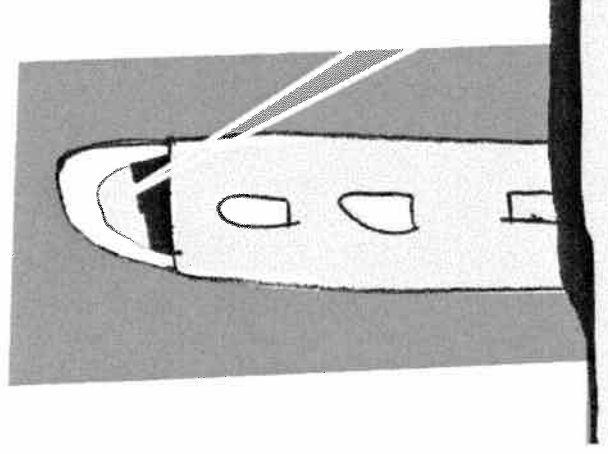

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes

6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects

7. Having vision and working strategically on developing the school

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

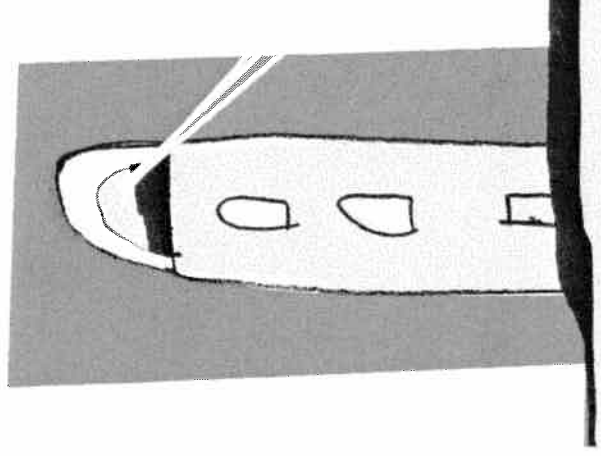

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes

6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects

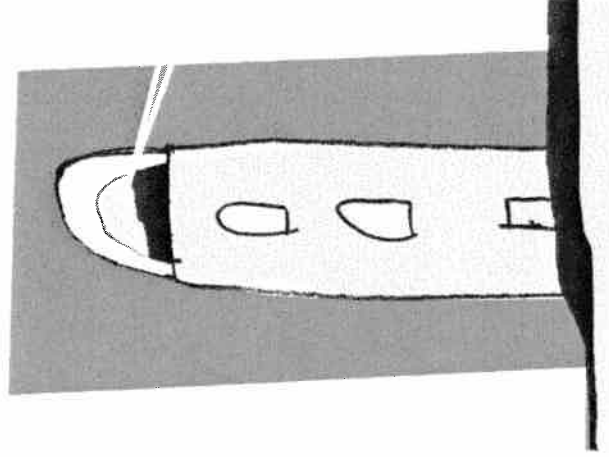

8. Safeguarding quality in the development and leadership of the personnel of the school

7. Having vision and working strategically on developing the school

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership
2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives
3. Creating an open, communicating school
4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole
5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes
6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects
7. Having vision and working strategically on developing the school
8. Safeguarding quality in the development and leadership of the personnel of the school
9. Ensuring that there is cohesion between resources, objectives and results

Good school leadership is:

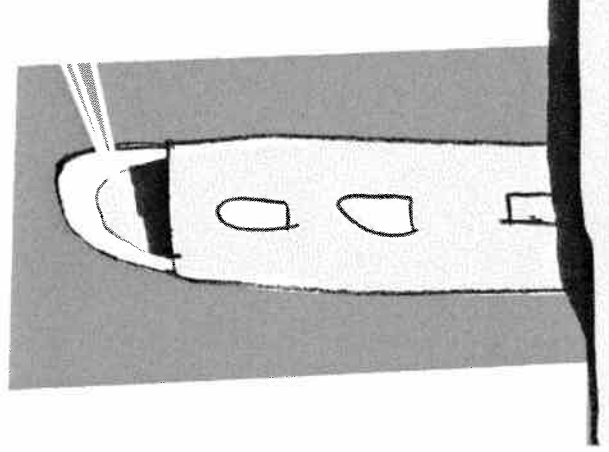

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership

2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives

3. Creating an open, communicating school

4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole

5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes

6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects

7. Having vision and working strategically on developing the school

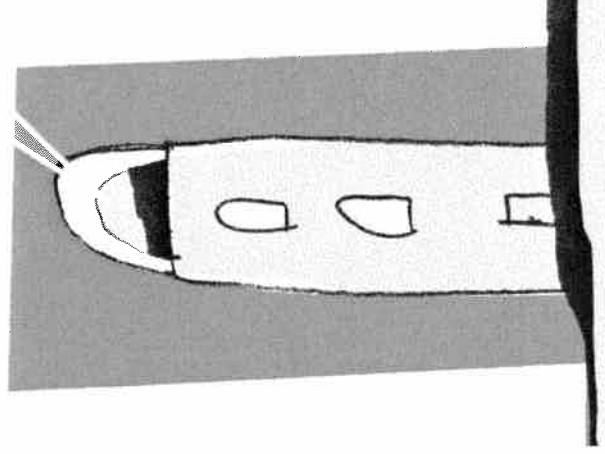

10. Displaying professional and personal integrity

9. Ensuring that there is cohesion between resources, objectives and results

8. Safeguarding quality in the development and leadership of the personnel of the school

Good school leadership is:

1. Identifying one's space for leadership and accepting responsibility for leadership
2. Accepting responsibility for the school living up to local, municipal and national political objectives
3. Creating an open, communicating school
4. Seeing one's school as a part of the municipal community and the public sector as a whole
5. Safeguarding quality in the school's learning, caring and educational processes
6. Securing the school's focus on results and effects
7. Having vision and working strategically on developing the school
8. Safeguarding quality in the development and leadership of the personnel of the school
9. Ensuring that there is cohesion between resources, objectives and results
10. Displaying professional and personal integrity

11. Safeguarding the values of the primary and lower secondary school and of democratic society

Challenge no. 1

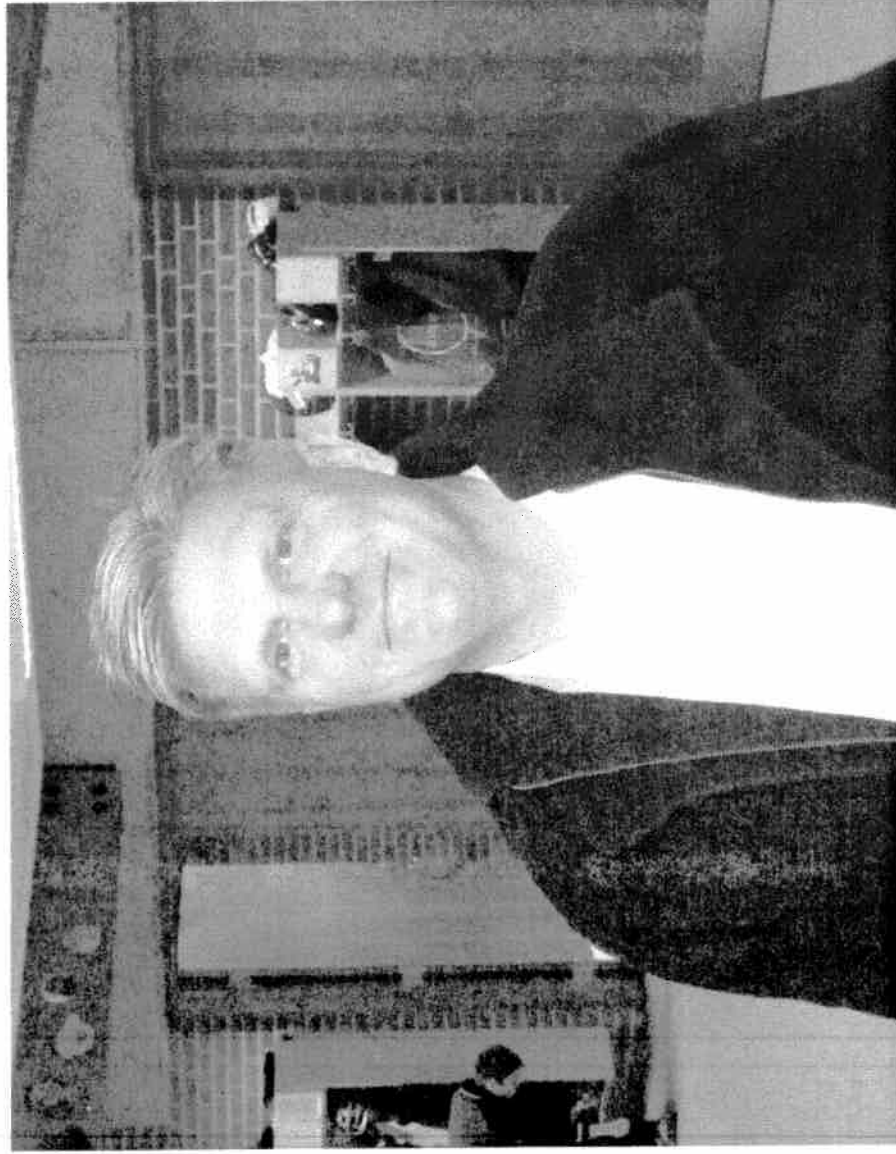

Challenge no.2

Challenge no. 3

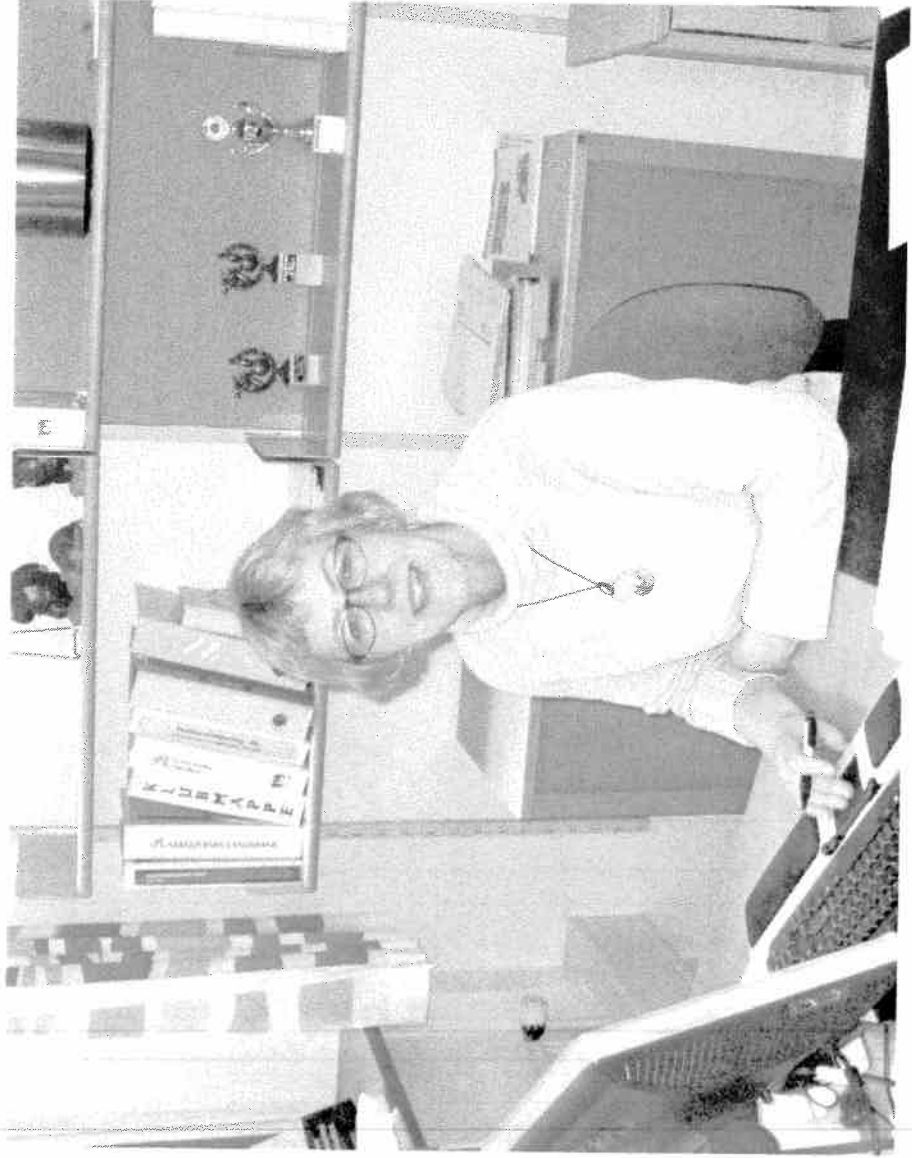

Challenge no. 4

Challenge no. 5

Challenge no.6

Thank You for listening 😊