Main indicators and characteristics of collective bargaining

This note presents the main indicators and characteristics of collective bargaining in Croatia for 2019 or the latest year available. The purpose of this note is to provide a snapshot of the functioning of collective bargaining in Croatia that can be used for comparisons with other countries in the database. Therefore, this note does not provide a precise description of the legal provisions or standard practices in Croatia but only a general summary.

The first version of the OECD and AIAS, Institutional Characteristics of Trade Unions, Wage Setting, State Intervention and Social Pacts (ICTWSS) database has been released in February 2021 and has been produced with the financial assistance of the European Union Programme for Employment and Social Innovation “EaSI” (2014-2020), VS/2019/0185. The views expressed herein can in no way be taken to reflect the official opinion of the European Union.

The OECD/AIAS ICTWSS database together with its codebook, a note on methodology and sources and a glossary is publicly available at www.oecd.org/employment/ictwss-database.htm. For any information or correction, please contact CollectiveBargaining@oecd.org.

Version: 17 Feb 2021

The actors and scope of collective bargaining

Trade union density (% of employees)	20.8% (in 2018)
Adjusted bargaining (or union) coverage rate (% of employees with the right to bargain)	52.7% (in 2014)
Employer organisation density (% of employees)	56.3% (in 2014)

Wage setting

The predominant level at which wage bargaining takes place (in terms of coverage of employees)	Intermediate or alternating between sector and company bargaining
The combination of levels at which collective bargaining over wages takes place	Sectoral (separate branches of the economy) and company, with company agreements that specify, or deviate from, sectoral agreements, guidelines or targets
Reach or incidence of additional enterprise bargaining	No additional enterprise-bargaining
Favourability	Hierarchy between levels is undefined and a matter for the negotiating parties (not fixed in law)
Opening clauses in sectoral collective agreements	Agreements contain no opening clauses
Crisis-related, temporary opening clauses in collective agreement	Missing
Mandatory extension of collective agreements to non-organised employers	Extension is rather exceptional (e.g. used in some industries only, because of absence of sector agreements, or very high thresholds (supermajorities, public policy criteria, etc.), and/or veto powers of employers)
Is there a statutory minimum wage in your country?	Yes, there is one or more statutory minimum wage rate(s) that cover(s) all or most employees

Wage co-ordination

Coordination of wage-setting

Some coordination of wage setting, based on pattern setting by major companies, sectors, government wage policies in the public sector, judicial awards, or minimum wage policies
