

OECD “Framework for Industry's net-zero Transition”
A framework for developing financing solutions to accelerate industry's net-zero transition in emerging and developing economies

Agenda
Hybrid meeting - Virtual and OECD Conference Centre (Room D in the Chateau)
Time (CET)
09:30-09:40	Welcome and opening remarks and introduction to the CEFIM programme Cecilia Tam, Team Leader, OECD CEFIM Programme
09:40-10:10	Presentation of the OECD Framework for Industry's net-zero Transition Deger Saygin, Industry programme lead, OECD CEFIM Programme Q&A with participants to provide further explanations on the Framework.
10:10-10:55	Session 1: The suitability of the Framework in view of the global industry sector developments Moderation: Deger Saygin, Industry programme lead, OECD CEFIM Programme ► Invited speakers to present on the progress and priorities of countries industry transition (15 min) Arijit Sengupta, Director in charge of International Cooperation, Bureau of Energy Efficiency, Government of India Mahendra Shunmoogam, Director of Primary Minerals & Construction at the Department of Trade, Industry, and Competition, Republic of South Africa Rizka Tri Wardani, Centre for Green Industry, Ministry of Industry, Republic of Indonesia Dialogue with participants will be structured around the following questions to provide feedback to the Framework: Which issues are most critical that present challenges to low-carbon industry transition and its financing? What are the key challenges related to market conditions and financing for small and medium scale enterprises? Is the Framework's objective and scope, proposed Steps and the flexible approach sufficient to address the complexity of the manufacturing industry? Are the planned outcomes of the Framework sufficient/useful to contribute to accelerating the low-carbon industry transition in emerging and developing countries? Should other solutions be developed and other considerations be taken into account?

	How can the Framework support implementation of countries bilateral climate finance priorities?
10:55-11:05	Coffee/tea break
11:05-11:50	Session 2: Possible finance and market solutions for industry's low-carbon transition Moderation: Joseph Cordonnier, Policy Analyst, OECD CEFIM Programme ► Invited speakers to present on financing solution case studies for low-carbon transition of the industry (15 min) Julia Reinaud, Senior Director, Breakthrough Energy Marcia Yu, Senior Investment Officer, IFC Dialogue with participants will be structured around the following questions: What are the main solutions (policies, regulations, financing) that can improve the enabling market conditions for low-carbon industry transition? What market solutions can help to accelerate the development and deployment of breakthrough technologies such as green hydrogen and carbon capture use and storage in emerging and developing economies? Which financing instruments (e.g. non-recourse project finance, green bonds), and financing institutions have been most successful to accelerate low-carbon industry transition? What are the eligibility criteria to qualify investments as transition finance or green finance in investors' portfolios? What new sources of capital (domestic or international) are needed? How can technology transfer boost the transition of the industry sectors of emerging and developing economies? Which solutions can unlock finance and investments for low-carbon technologies for small and medium scale enterprises?
11:55-12:25	Session 3: Opportunities for collaboration in implementation of the Framework Moderation: Cecilia Tam, Team Leader, OECD CEFIM Programme Dialogue will be structured around the following questions: How can the OECD and other organisations collaborate to enhance stakeholder engagement and create buy in for the Framework in countries? In which areas would your organisation or country want to collaborate with OECD in the implementation of the Framework? How can joint strategies be developed to assist countries in the implementation of the Framework outcomes?
12:25-12:30	Wrap-up and next steps