

FINANCING CLIMATE FUTURES: RETHINKING INFRASTRUCTURE AN INCLUSIVE TRANSITION FOR THE LOW-EMISSION ECONOMY

HIGH-LEVEL PANEL
TUESDAY 14 MAY 2019
14:30 TO 18:00

KfW Bank, Französische Str. 42, 10117 Berlin

The OECD, UN Environment and the World Bank Group have joined forces under the “Financing Climate Futures: Rethinking Infrastructure” initiative to lay out a transformative agenda for governments to fundamentally re-align incentives and finances towards meeting global climate and development goals. The initiative is supported by the German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety.

This high-level panel will bring together leading experts to discuss how to work together to align financial flows with a low-emission, resilient future and effectively implement Article 2.1(c) of the Paris Agreement. The session will pay particular attention political economy considerations in a successful and inclusive shift to the low-emission economy.
