

OECD Technical Assistance Project on Financial Education in the
Commonwealth of Independent States, Phase II

Agenda of Peer Learning on “Evaluation of financial education programmes in schools”

Friday, 4 June 2021
10:00-12:30 (CET)

The meeting will be held via videoconference using Zoom
Interpretation in English and Russian will be provided

For further information, please contact:
Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs, OECD, SecretariatCIS@oecd.org
Ms. Sona Lalayan, Policy analyst, sona.lalayan@oecd.org

with the financial support of the Ministry of Finance of Russian Federation*

The peer learning will be held via videoconference using Zoom.

*Your unique link to participate will be sent upon approval of your registration

When connecting, please rename yourself to "COUNTRY - Abbreviated authority - Your name" so that we can easily identify participants.

Please connect early to allow enough time for us to process the waiting room & start the meeting on time.

To ensure the meeting runs smoothly, please follow this link to better familiarise yourself with Zoom.

Format of the Peer Learning event

- Ahead of the event, the Peer Learners a set of questions on the topic of the event were collected from the country partners. This is to allow the Peer Presenter to focus their discussion.

- Some suggested reading on the topic to help the participants prepare for the discussions can be found below.

Participants:

- Peer Presenters: Central Bank of Armenia, Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation

- Peer Learners: CIS countries of the OECD TA project on financial education.

- Peer Learning Coordinator: OECD

10:00-10:10

Item 1. Welcoming remarks

- Armenuhi Mkrtchyan, Head of the Consumer Rights Protection and Financial Education Center, Central Bank of Armenia
- Flore-Anne Messy, Head of Consumer Finance, Insurance and Pensions, OECD; INFE Executive Secretary

10:10-10:30

Item 2. Overview of the project “Implementation of financial education in schools” in Armenia

The Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of Armenia will give a brief presentation of the "Financial Education in Schools" project, which is currently being implemented by the Central Bank of Armenia in collaboration with the Ministry of Education and Science.

Participants will be invited to ask questions following the presentation.

- Tehmine Karakhanyan, Senior specialist; The Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of Armenia

10:30 – 10:50

Item 3. Presentation of the results of the Pilot project on financial education in schools “Financial education in schools: working group” will present the pilot project on "Financial Education in Schools" implemented in selected schools in Armenia. The Central Bank of Armenia will share the results of the evaluation of the pilot project.

Participants will be invited to ask questions following the presentation.

- Arthur Pokrikyan, Financial Education expert; Financial education in schools: working group

10:50 - 11:15

Item 4. Presentation of the project “Assessment of effectiveness of the training of teachers programme in Armenia”

The Central Bank of Armenia will present how the “training of teachers” programme, implemented as part of the project on financial education in schools, was assessed. In particular, the evaluation methods and their results will be discussed.

Participants will be invited to ask questions following the presentation.

- Araks Manucharyan, Financial Education expert; Central Bank of Armenia
-
-

11:15 - 11:40

Item 5. Evaluation of students’ performance in the framework of the project on financial education in schools

The Central Bank of Armenia will share their experience on the methods selected to evaluate the performance of students in term of financial literacy levels.

Participants will be invited to ask questions following the presentation.

- Naneh Hovanesian, Senior Economist; Researcher, Central Bank of Armenia
-

11:40 – 12:20

Item 6. Ensuring Effective Development of Financial Education in Russian Schools.

During this session, Russian experts will share their experiences in evaluating financial education programmes in schools and teaching and learning packages, as well as developing financial education on this basis, including in the context of functional literacy.

Moderator:

- Anna Zelentsova, PhD, NIFI, Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation; Co-chair of the G20 Global Partnership for Financial Inclusion

Speakers:

- Galina Kovaleva, PhD, Institute for Educational Development Strategy, Russian Academy of Education
- Elena Rutkovskaya, PhD, Institute for Educational Development Strategy, Russian Academy of Education

Discussant: Ekaterina Lavrenova, PhD, Russian Centre for the Development of Artistic Creativity and Humanitarian Technologies of the Ministry of Education of the Russian Federation

12:20 – 12:25

Item 7. Conclusions and summary

- Flore-Anne Messy, Head of Consumer Finance, Insurance and Pensions, OECD; INFE Executive Secretary

The OECD will provide some sources of information (INFE and CIS platforms).

12:25 – 12:30

Item 8. Brief Evaluation

A Brief poll to receive immediate feedback from participants on the format, content, and outcomes.

The OECD will prepare a write-up of the Peer Learning event, after the event, including the presentations by the participants and the set of questions/responses on the topic, aiming to prepare a learning note on the topic of how to effectively to deliver digital content of financial education.

Suggested reading on the topic:

Mapping Existing Financial Educational Initiatives in Armenia

<https://www.oecd.org/financial/education/globalpartnerships/commonwealthofindependentstates/Armenia-mapping-existing-financial-education-initiatives.pdf>

Financial Inclusion, Regulation, Financial Literacy, and Financial Education in Armenia

<https://www.adb.org/sites/default/files/publication/421641/adbi-wp843.pdf>
