Item 2. INTRODUCTION OF THE CIS NETWORK ON FINANCIAL EDUCATION

Ms. Flore-Anne Messy

The introduction will focus on:

- i. Potential objectives and added value of the CIS regional network
 - ii. Role of the members of this network
 - iii. Next steps and timeline

9:25 – 10:20

Item 3. ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION ON THE DRAFT TERMS OF REFERENCES OF THE CIS NETWORK ON FINANCIAL EDUCATION AND ON THE AVENUES FOR FUTURE WORKSTREAMS

Moderator: Ms. Flore-Anne Messy

Countries will be invited to discuss the draft ToR, to answer the questions formulated in the ToR and to raise other questions:

- i. The first section of the ToR “Objectives and advantages of the CIS Network on Financial Literacy” describes how a network can be enhanced and it details the advantages of the network.
Do you agree with the objectives and benefits of the network described in this section? What would you like to modify? What additional or alternative objectives and benefits, relevant for your work, would you like to add?
- ii. The section “Scope and activities” describes the main areas of work followed by a more detailed description of possible areas of work.
Do you agree with the major work areas and with the suggested ways of building activities? What additional areas could the network work on? Would you suggest other means of building activities? Do you agree with the approach for developing a work plan? Which frequency of the work plan do you prefer?
- iii. The section “Members of the Regional Network” proposes two groups of members, each with a specific role.
Do you agree with this classification into two groups? Would you like to suggest additional groups? Do you agree with the role assigned to the different groups? What additional roles should be assigned to the first and / or the second group? What potential additional members would you like to admit to the first or second group of members (described in annex 1)?

All participants will be invited to provide suggestions on future workstreams of the network and to prioritize the work for the coming year.

10:20- 10:30

Item 4. Wrap-up and next steps
