

Latin American Network of Good Regulatory Practices 4th expert dialogue March 16 and 17, 2017.

Training Centre of Spanish Cooperation In Cartagena de Indias, Colombia

Centro, Carrera 36 No. 2-74, Plaza Santo Domingo, <http://www.aacidcf.org.co/>

The initiative of the Latin American Network of Good Regulatory Practices seeks to establish a permanent dialogue on progress and challenges in promoting regulatory quality in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean. The main objective of the Network is to communicate and exchange experiences and practices among experts in the Latin American and Caribbean region (LAC) as well as OECD member countries.

Based on three previous meetings - Paris, France; Lima Peru; Santiago, Chile - The fourth expert dialogue on regulatory policy in Latin America aims to consolidate the creation of the Latin American Good Regulatory Practices Network, to agree on the work program for the creation of a regulatory policy guide in Latin America, and provide training in regulatory quality tools.
