Global Dialogue of Justice Leaders
Justice for All for a fair, resilient, and inclusive recovery

20 October 2020
8.30 AM – 10.00 AM EST / 14.30 – 16.00 CET, via Zoom

The Global Dialogue of Justice Leaders will bring together leaders from all regions and income groups to explore how justice systems can:

- Support an effective, inclusive, and fair response to the public health emergency and sustain this through the course of a pandemic that will continue to threaten societies until a vaccine is developed, tested, and distributed to billions of people.

- Prevent and respond to the new wave of criminal, civil, and administrative justice problems that is building, while acting as a platform for people and communities to participate fully in renewal and recovery.

- Respect people’s rights, end abuses of marginalized and disadvantaged groups, and serve communities in ways that increase trust, promote social cohesion, and enable societies to work together during this emergency.

- Use principles of openness and accountability in order to strengthen the justice sector in the longer term, particularly its ability to help people obtain access to information about the law and their rights, and obtain redress and remedy for the injustices that affect their lives.

Draft Agenda
