

Country case: Code of Conduct for the Queensland (Australia) Public Service

Description

This code applies to employees of Queensland public service agencies. Public service agencies are defined under the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994 as:

- a department
- a TAFE institute or statutory TAFE institute
- the administrative office of a court or tribunal
- an entity prescribed by regulation.

Public Procurement
Principle: Integrity, Capacity

Procurement Stage: All phases

Audience: Policy Maker,
Procuring Entity

For the purposes of this document only, employees (other than judicial officials), are defined as:

- any Queensland public service employee whether permanent, temporary, full-time, part-time or casual
- any volunteer, student, contractor, consultant or anyone who works in any other capacity for Queensland public service agency.

The code applies at all times when we are performing official duties including when we are representing the Queensland Government at conferences, training events, on business trips and attending work-related social events.
