

Ms. Lizette Risgaard

President, Danish Trade Union Confederation, Denmark

Lizette Risgaard has had a long career in the trade union movement. President of the Danish Trade Union Confederation (FH), the largest national trade union confederation in Denmark, recognized as the most representative worker organization in both the private and the public sector.

FH represents 1.4 million workers. The aim of FH is to contribute to a society that focuses more on solidarity and democracy, to the benefit of workers, a society in which everyone can get an education and good and healthy jobs in order to provide for themselves and their families.

2007-15, Vice-President and 2015-19, President of the Danish Confederation of Trade Unions (LO) before its merger. 2000-07, Vice-President, LO Greater Copenhagen. Former President of HK/Service Copenhagen. From 1980, clerical worker in various trade unions.
