STATEMENT OF THE OECD COUNCIL

29th September 1994

The Council of the OECD having not yet reached a consensus on the appointment of a Secretary-General, it has decided to entrust Mr. Staffan Sohlman with the functions assigned to the Secretary-General, until a Secretary-General appointed by the Council has taken office or, at the latest, until 30 November 1994.

This decision will allow the Organisation to function without discontinuity, pending the early appointment of a Secretary-General.

Mr. Sohlman is Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Sweden to the OECD. While he is acting Secretary-General, Mr. Sohlman will not exercise the functions of Permanent Representative of Sweden.
