

Seminar

"Innovations and challenges in the management of a regional policy"

Date: February 22nd 2017

Place: Hotel Bôrik (Hall -2B), Bôrik 1628/15, 811 02 Bratislava

Program

8:00 – 9:00 Registration

Session I

Chairman: prof. Ing. arch. Maroš Finka, PhD.

9:00 – 9:20 Opening session

Anton Marcinčin, Plenipotentiary of the Government for the Support of the Lagging Regions;

Ábel Ravasz, Plenipotentiary of the Government for Roma Communities;

Joaquim Oliveira Martins, Head of Regional Development Policy, OECD

9:20 – 10:45 Regional policy in OECD countries – key trends and recent developments

Joaquim Oliveira Martins, Head of Regional Development Policy, OECD

10:45 – 11:30 Promoting growth in all regions and the new rural policy 3.0 (including education and labour market policies)

Jose Enrique Garcilazo, Head of Rural Development Unit, OECD

11:30 – 11:45 Coffee break

11:45 – 13:00

Multi-level governance of regional policy – Multi-level governance of public investment & infrastructure development

Dorothee Allain-Dupré, Senior Project Manager, Governance of decentralization and public investment, OECD

13:00 – 14:00

Lunch break

Session II

Chairman: prof. Ing. Ján Pokrivčák, PhD.

14:00 – 15:15

Enhancing the role of municipalities in local & regional economies - Subnational finances to support local development

Isabelle Chatry, Project Manager, Territorial Reforms and subnational finances

15:15 – 16:00

Regional development and innovation policies

Joaquim Oliveira Martins, Head of Regional Development Policy, OECD

16:00 – 16:30

Closing remarks

Anton Marcinčin, Plenipotentiary of the Government for the Support of the Lagging Regions

Joaquim Oliveira Martins, Head of Regional Development Policy, OECD

16:00 – 16:30

End of seminar