

Ana Mujica

Director for Rural Women
Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development
Colombia

Ana Mujica is the current Director for Rural Women at the Colombian Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development. Ana has wide experience in social and economic development issues, having previously worked as a consultant in Water & Sanitation in both Latin American and African countries, and within the Research Department at the Inter-American Development Bank in Washington, DC. Since joining the Ministry of Agriculture, Ana has been directly involved in policy design to ensure that women are included in all programmes and projects and that gender inequality is acknowledged by both public and private sector stakeholders, thus aiming to foster women's empowerment and a reduction in gender inequality in rural areas. Ana holds an MPhil in Development Studies from the University of Oxford, and an MA and BSc in Economics from Universidad de los Andes in Bogota, Colombia
