

Michael Kull
Senior Research Fellow
Nordregio
Sweden

Michael Kull is Senior Research Fellow at Nordregio in Stockholm and holds a PhD (Political Science) from University Helsinki, where he also serves as adjunct professor. He was visiting professor at Tallinn Uni. of Technology, at the Getulio Vargas Foundation in Rio de Janeiro (environmental governance) and at University of Strasbourg. His research interests and publications include multilevel governance, rural development, and the governance of marine spaces. His publications include the monograph "European Integration and Rural Development - Actors, Institutions and Power" (London: Routledge). Michael is project manager of the Pan Baltic SCOPE, BioWiseTrans and "Rural Attractiveness" projects at Nordregio. He is also part of the secretariat of the Nordic Thematic Working Group on "Sustainable Rural Development".