Senior Counsellor
SIC - Sustainability, Integrity, Cohesion

Heino von Meyer is a Senior Counsellor engaged in research and consultancy for SIC - Sustainability, Integrity, Cohesion. His focus is on understanding and promoting innovative local/rural development, responsible management of global value chains and combating regional disparities. He is Senior Policy Advisor with Ecologic Institute, Berlin and a member of various boards and advisory bodies at national and European level. From 2002 to 2019 Heino von Meyer served as Head of the OECD Berlin Centre, a liaison and information office for the German speaking Member countries of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. He was covering the entire spectrum of OECD topics from economics, finance, trade and development, to education, social affairs, environment and energy, to corporate and public governance issues. From 1991 to 2002 Heino von Meyer has worked for various directorates at OECD headquarters in Paris; initially as Head of the Territorial Data and Indicators unit, in particular undertaking analyses on rural development, subsequently as principal administrator in charge of the OECD Environmental Performance Reviews. In the 1980s, Heino von Meyer was head of various research and consulting institutions, particularly dealing with issues of European agricultural, regional and environmental policy.
