

Josefina Montero Reyes
Coordination Analyst – Department of Rural Development
Office of Agricultural Studies and Policies
Ministry of Agriculture of Chile

Josefina Montero is an Agronomist with a major in administration of the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile. She is the coordinator in the Department of Rural Development, which is working in the implementation of the National Rural Development Policy in Chile. She is in charge of the coordination with all the public sectors involved in the rural areas, all the services of the Agriculture Minister, and the international organisms; also, with the private sector and the civil society. All her life has been related to the rural areas, making her very passionate with her work.