

Karen Cain
Latrobe Valley Authority
Australia

A Latrobe Valley resident for 23 years, Karen has significant experience working across government, leading strategic innovation, and developing and implementing policy in Gippsland.

Karen is experienced in developing and delivering on issues that reflect what matters to community and government.

She has worked with families and the community as a principal in government schools in the Latrobe Valley for 11 years, including Woolum Bellum Koorie School in Morwell, Traralgon College Junior Campus, and Lowanna Secondary College in Newborough.