

Julia Latta

Project Manager, Scottish Enterprise

United Kingdom

Julia is a Project Manager with Scottish Enterprise and has a range of business, economic and rural skills spanning a 23 year career which include project management, leadership development, business coaching, rural innovation, stakeholder/relationship management, event management and PA/office management. She has developed international linkages to share knowledge, best practice on rural leadership development with America, Canada, Australia, Sweden and Finland. During 2013/14 Julia was a visiting Researcher at Edinburgh University undertaking research on rural collaboration and rural entrepreneurship. During 2015/16 Julia completed a BA in Business and Enterprise. She is a member of the International Association of Programmes for Agricultural and Rural Leadership and various other networking groups relating to rural economic development.