

Dr. Peter Wostner
Head of the Smart Specialisation Unit Slovenia Government and Chair of the OECD Chair of the Working Party on Rural Policy

Dr. Peter Wostner is the head of the Smart Specialisation Unit responsible for policy coordination of innovation related activities within the Slovenian Government. Dr. Wostner is an expert on (territorial) development, competitiveness policies and EU budget where he has been, for last 15 years, directly involved in the EU budget and regulatory negotiations as well as setting up of the programming framework and implementation arrangements, including design of policy instruments and in setting up of Slovenian clusters, the Strategic Research and Innovation Partnerships. He is a lecturer, moderator and also author of number of articles, especially as regards EU budget and development policy. Dr. Wostner is the chairman of the OECD's Working Party on Rural Policy and Vice-Chair of the Regional Development Policy Committee.