

Tom Jones
European Economic and Social Committee
United Kingdom

Tom Jones, OBE,FRAGS, is a livestock farmer from Mid Wales and Vice President of the Wales Council for Voluntary Action.He is a UK Member of the EESC, European Economic and Social Committee and Raporteur of 2 Opinions on the Rural Development Programme and the future of European Rural Villages and Small Towns. He is currently preparing an Opinion on the Contribution of Rural Areas to the 2018 European Year of Cultural Heritage.A keen supporter of rural parliaments and an Advisor to the Carnegie Trust Twin Town Project.

.