

Table of contents

Preface: From indicators to action .....	3
Better policies for men and women .....	4
OECD work on gender equality in developing countries .....	6
1. Population
Men and women in the populations of OECD countries .....	7
Total fertility rates .....	8
Immigration .....	9
2. Education
Students with disabilities, learning difficulties and disadvantages .....	10
Student performance .....	11
Tertiary education .....	12
University graduates by field of study .....	13
3. Labour market
Inactive youths .....	14
Gender wage gaps .....	15
Employment .....	16
Unemployment .....	17
Self employment .....	18
Working hours .....	19
Occupations of men and women .....	20
Immigrants and employment .....	21
4. Political and economic power
Women in parliament .....	22
Managerial and professional posts .....	23
5. Social issues
Life satisfaction .....	24
Social isolation .....	25
Prison population .....	26
6. Health
Life expectancy at birth .....	27
Causes of death .....	28
Tobacco consumption .....	29
Overweight and obese .....	30

Acknowledgements:

This brochure has been prepared by Derek Blades, with Mark Pearson, Head of the OECD Social Policy Division as editor. Contributors from across the Organisation deserve the real credit for the existence of this brochure, however, for all the work they have undertaken in developing gender statistics over the years. The enthusiasm of the OECD Gender group was essential in getting the project completed. Particular thanks are due to Pauline Fron, Lynda Hawe and Valentina Kostyleva.