

Guangfa Wang

President and Chairman of Fazheng Group

Mr. Wang has the global vision, entrepreneurial spirit and openness to innovation to make a profound impact on education in China. Under his leadership, Beijing Royal School has taken a leading position among Chinese schools to combine the advantages of western education with the rigor and tradition for which Chinese schools are famous. Mr. Wang has also been an early and bold embracer of educational technologies. As early as 2009, he envisioned bringing mobile devices and digital learning to BRS. For the past 5 years, BRS teachers and students have presented at the UNESCO Mobile Learning Week Conference, demonstrating his belief that "Mobile Learning Can Make a Change in Education". He believes that through these means, world-class education can be shared with learners in even the most remote and under-funded schools in China. Mr. Wang's enduring commitment in education have earned him numerous honors and awards, including recognition as one of China's Top 10 Leaders in the field of Private Education.
