

Tian Wei

Tian Wei is a former Washington Correspondent, and now Host of “World Insight with Tian Wei” on CGTN, an international debate & high-profile interview program on CGTN. She began as a radio producer, and worked later as a reporter, a news presenter, a talk show host, a Washington Correspondent covering the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, and as anchor woman of China’s international broadcaster.

Her no-nonsense, and fair approach has not only made her popular with audiences but also earned her recognition worldwide. Tian was named as a “Young Global Leader” by the World Economic Forum and she also serves on WEF’s Media Council. Over the years, she has won various professional awards, including: China’s National Journalism Awards, the National Award for International Broadcasters and CCTV Host of the Year.

In addition to her work, Tian is actively involved and outspoken on issues of poverty alleviation, health, environmental protection and gender equity. She has been honoured by the United Nations Development Program as a Special Advisor. She is also China’s National Advocacy Ambassador for Mental Health and a Red-Ribbon Ambassador on HIV-AIDS.